

HOUSEKEEPERS

Do You Wish To Cut Living Expenses 15 to 20 Per Cent?

Three weeks ago we decided to discontinue our business due to the fact that our credit system of selling, was ruinous and we were therefore obliged to charge an exorbitant profit on our goods, our customers who promptly paid their bills, being compelled to pay this high rate because others failed to do so. We considered this unfair, and therefore commenced selling out our stock below cost in order to raise money quickly to meet our obligations.

After sale had been on for several days, we found that the housekeepers were willing to pay cash for good goods at the right prices, and came to the conclusion that it would pay to operate a store where good merchandise will be sold for cash at a small margin of profit.

Our selling campaign has already brought good results to you, causing other stores to advertise sales, but even at that, their sale prices are higher than our regular prices will be in our New Store, for the same grade of goods. Actual demonstration has also proven that it is not necessary to use any other advertising Medium than our Home Paper, and request that you watch our ad, every Thursday for bargains during the following week. We cordially invite you to visit our store on our opening day

Sunday afternoon the spirit of Valentine's day was very much in evidence at the home of Lillian Antes, who delightfully entertained twelve of her school friends at a Valentine party. Numerous games appropriate for the day were indulged in at which Laurel Stryker, and Helen Edstrand were successful winners of prizes. At five o'clock a very dainty luncheon was served on a table prettily decorated with hearts, cupid, etc. The center piece was a beautiful arranged cart made of red crepe paper drawn by two Kewpees from which each of the guests received a small favor. To add to the effect of the party Lillian wore a very pretty dress of red, which represented a valentine. The following guests were present: Helen Edstrand, Lois Adams, Marjory Garrity, Agnes Peterson, Eugenia Watier, Eva Ender, Pearl Peterson, Florence Zohler, Laurel Stryker, Mabel Hammer and Catherine Geary of Highland Park.

Miss Gretchen Kramer of McGregor, Ia., is the guest of Miss Edith Anderson.

A special performance of the play "The Quarantine" will be given for the children Friday evening, February 25th, in the school hall, and a small admission fee will be charged. The regular entertainment for every one will be given Saturday evening, February 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Whiting have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Whiting and Miss Rhea Wood, of Winnipeg, this week.

No doubt the masquerade and carnival which was given in the school house Monday evening surpassed all other affairs of its kind ever given in Deerfield. The spectator on passing through the corridors and auditorium witnessed scenes of unusual gaiety, fun and frolic and was encountered by men, women and children mysteriously masked and many elaborately costumed.

The festivities of the evening were
