On Friday evening the heavyweight basket-ball team went to La Grange High School and lost the game, score 39 to 17. The boys on the home team did not play up to par. On Saturday evening Oak Park met the light and heavy-weight teams in the home gym. The light-weight team lost, by the score of 25 to 8. This was a game played under the difficulty of a slippery floor, made so by "ye merry dancers." The heavyweight game was a great game in which Deerfield rolled up her score to 36 and Oak Park to 10. The home team did some star playing and were encouraged by a good deal of school spirit. On Saturday Chicago Latin will meet the home team here, and on Friday the third of March, the team will go to Waukegan where the boys will play the high school.

A communication to Mr. R. L. Sandwick from Lake Forest College states that the following boys from Thomas Findlay, Edwin Gilroy and Phillip Spledel.

Presbyterian Church Notes

In the series of sermons on Prayer

at the Presbyterian church, the pastor spoke last Sunday morning from the text, "When thou prayest", which expresses Christ's assumption that we will pray. In the course of the discussion two great facts on which Christ based prayer were mentione namely that He recognized the place of prayer both in the government of God and in the life of the child o God; and that He recognized both public and private, both audible and inaudible prayer as having an im portant place in the life of man. The Messrs. Guyot, and W. E. Is any among you sick, let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, having annointed him with oil in the name of the Lord (the most prevalent custom of practicing medicine in those days), and the prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sin it shall be forgiven him." (James 5:13-15). The setmon closed with the thought that Christ is ever the great example in prayer, and "When we pray," we should pray as He did.

Next Sunday morning the text will be "After this manner therefore pray ye, 'Our Father Who art in Heaven'," in which discussion the significance of the Fatherhood of God, and James Robertson and wife to Rose the manner of prayer, and use of the A.
