The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Mrs. Arvid Magnussen of W. Vine Avenue, entertained a number of friends at her home on Tuesday evening, March twenty-ninth, it being her birthday anniversary. Games and music passed the evening hours most pleasantly.

Harold Nolan entertained the Five Hundred Club at his home on Lincoln Place Friday evening.

Mary Elizabeth Mann of N. St. John's Avenue, celebrated her eighth birthday on Tuesday, February the twenty-ninth. This is the second "real birthday" little Miss Mann has enjoyed.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Evangelical Lutheran church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Raabe of S. Green Bay Road.

Miss Helen Welch entertained a few of her friends informally at her home on West Park Avenue, Friday evening. Dancing and games passed the evening pleasantly.

Frances Buell was hostess to a number of friends at an informal dancing party Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Steindel, assisted by Mr. Harry Weisbach and others, will be heard in the third concert in a series of three, on Saturday morning, at Orchestra Hall, Chicago. The above names are very familiar to those who frequent the concerts at Ravinia Park.

On Tuesday afternoon occurred the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Lautman and Dr. W. B. McVeigh who are newcomers in Highland Park. Mrs. McVeigh is from Connecticut state, and Dr. McVeigh comes from Albany, New York, and they will make their future home here. They were quietly married by Rev. J. W. Funston of the Methodist Episcopal church, Waukegan. Dr. and Mrs. McVeigh are both doctors and will make their home in the A. J. Fletcher flat at 134 E. Central Avenue, and will also have their offices there.

The Humor Door

"Knock Gently If You Would Enter"

It has been said that, "The Daniel just missed being an after dinner speaker."

We are worried by the present Mr. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy. Please, good; kind, Mr. Daniels, let the general board be the generals. Be content with being a private. If you have views, you have a newspaper in Raleigh, North Carolina, that boasts a circulation of ten thousand subscribers. Please air your views in Raleigh. Our country has one hundred million citizens. We citizens, insist on editing our country's cries. If you would enter our lion's den, continue. Cave lionem.

This Henry Ford person started as a blacksmith. Judging from his recent attacks on the Navy League he still has his hammer out.

There is a gardener in Highland Park named Tom Green. He ought to make flowers grow.

I was talking to the Highbrow Barber recently. He seemed worried. I inquired into the cause of his perturbation. He replied: "Just before you came in I shaved the man who invented the safety razor. I never did like that guy. It was my duty to the brotherhood to cut him, and I failed."

Captain Moffett, Commandant of the Great Lakes Station, always a patriot, has offered to lend one of his divers to the Exmoor Golf Club. It has been suggested that the diver act as retriever at the water hazards.

In Des Moines, Iowa, the home of the commission government, policemen no longer carry clubs. It's a good idea. Down with clubs. Policemen should "have a heart."

A sign on Canal Street, Chicago, reads "Men Wanted." This sign should be displayed in every High School throughout the land. Men are always wanted. And, in the United States, as in no country, men come forward.

The "Humor Door" solicits co-operation. Send in your quips. Unsuccessful contributors to "The Line" are urged especially. Look for us every once in a while.

Highland Park Club

The March program is very attractive notwithstanding the fact that the beginning of Lent, that season of quietness in social activities, starts on the eighth of the month. Members and guests will enjoy their final dance before Lent on Tuesday evening, the seventh. Moving pictures are very interesting this month. They are: tomorrow evening, "Quincy Adams Sawyer," a rural story of New England; Balfe's opera, "The Bohemian Girl," on the tenth; Richard Harding Davis' comedy drama, "The Galloper," on the seventeenth; Francis Hodgson Burnett's "Little Lord Fauntleroy" on the twenty-fourth, and "An Exposition Romance" in which the entire Miller Brothers of 101 Ranch will appear in a wild west show on the thirty-first. All these motion pictures begin at seven-thirty. The Ossoli Club is offering especially good programs, both for their afternoon meetings and for their study classes. On the ninth, Elizabeth Jenkins will speak on "Home Making Schools," at ten-thirty in the morning; on the thirtieth, Rev. Charles Bayard Mitchell will speak on "The Art of Human Approach," at two forty-five in the afternoon. On the sixteenth of the month the Ossoli Club will have their Domestic Science Day, in charge of Mrs. Anson Morgan. Both afternoon and evening will be given over for this exhibition. This Saturday evening Mr. John Kendrick Bangs, the lecturer and writer, will speak at the club on, "Salubrities I Have Met." There will be cards on the evening of the twenty-first.

North End M. E. Church

Services are held at the church as follows: Mid-week service, Wednesday evening, at seven forty-five; Sunday services are, Sunday School at nine forty-five; Junior League at two-thirty; Epworth League at six forty-five; Public Worship at eight. The Ladies' Aid Society will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gail of 1015 N. St. Johns Avenue. There will be a Sub-District Rally held at Lake Bluff, Friday evening. The members of this church will attend. The series of lectures given every Wednesday evening on the History of the Christian Church are proving to be very interesting.
