The Rexall Store

ONE CENT SALE!

at Schumacher's Drug Store

March 16--17--18. Remember the Date

How Can He Do It? The One-Cent Sale Puzzles Many People? "How can Fred W. Schumacher sell two articles of a kind for only one cent more than the price of one?" The answer is—he cannot! The United Drug Company, the big Rexall organization, does it for him; they have originated this mammoth One-Cent Sale, to be given at each Rexall Store once or twice a year, as a part of their advertising campaign, devoting a certain sum of money to this purpose, just as they do to their magazine and newspaper campaigns—realizing that the more homes into which they can get a full-size, practical package of really meritorious goods, the more enthusiastic friends and boosters they will make for their line.

The Rexall druggist reports his sales, and is paid from the advertising fund a small profit, sufficient to compensate him for the time and money spent in making the Sale successful. If everybody realized the real big bargain they are offered in this One-Cent Sale the allotment of goods would not last one day let alone three days of the sale.

FRED W. SCHUMACHER

A Little History

ABOUT twenty-five years ago, the writer while traveling in the northern part of Canada, observed that the Indian inhabitants were buying all their supplies from one large corporation, which seemed to control them, although there were several smaller traders anxious to serve them, and willing to give them much greater value in merchandise for their furs than the larger Company was doing.

Upon investigation it was found that the reason for their doing this was that practically all of the Indians were in debt to the large Company in a great many instances owing more than they could possibly pay for with the following winter's catch of furs, therefore being compelled to accept a smaller amount of merchandise for their furs, than they would have received from the smaller traders, had they not been in debt to the larger Company.

Are we going back to the Indians way of doing business?

Woman's Civic Club

The next regular meeting of the Woman's Civic Club of Ravinia will take place at the Village House tomorrow afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. Miss Anna Morgan will have charge of the afternoon and will speak on Dramatic Art, including art of expression, voice production, and stage department. Miss Morgan's last work for the club was such that a good number should hear her again. A social hour will follow the meeting.

Deerfield News Items

Every seat in the Presbyterian church was filled Sunday evening when Dr. Scott, associate pastor of Olivet Institute delivered a stereopticon lecture on "How the Other Half Lives." The district described is known as "Little Hell" and a picture was shown of Death Corner where two hundred people have been murdered in five years among the Sicilians, and no murderer apprehended.

Rev. Osborn's Sunday morning sermon to the children was from the text: "So fight I, not as one that beateeth the air." A large number of children attended. The regular sermon was a dissertation on creeds, in which a distinction was made between the moralist and religionist.

The Woman's Missionary Society had several representatives at the Quarterly meeting held in Ravenswood Thursday.

The Community House basket-ball team defeated the First National Bank team Saturday evening in the hardest fought game of the season. The score was 42 to 29. Alex Willman was referee.

It has been ascertained that the "Oscar II," the ship which took the Ford peace party to Norway, is the same boat that brought "Doc Cook" home. Henry and Doc both discovered something, "a frost."

Mayor Thompson might well give Highland Park mayors "the once over." These gentlemen run our civic affairs, and at the expiration of their terms we think more of them than when they took hold.

Excerpts from the speech of a well meaning pacifist: "I would respectfully suggest that the United States take the two billion dollars, which it will probably cost to defend this country against aggression, and divide it into lump sums which could then be distributed among the warring nations. By this generous act the United States would automatically disarm the warring powers for all time. For any nation that would fight
