Obituary

On Tuesday, March 7th, occurred the death of Mr. Henry Wilkinson, aged 84 years, at the home of Mr. George W. Roberts.

Mr. Wilkinson's death was the result of a short illness of pneumonia.

The funeral services will be held at Rosehill this afternoon, interment taking place there.

Two grand-children survive the deceased. They are Mr. George R. Roberts and Miss Helen M. Roberts.

Parents and Teachers' Association

The next regular meeting of the Elm Place Division of the Parent-Teacher Association will take place Wednesday afternoon, March fifteenth, at three o'clock, at Elm Place School. Mrs. O. T. Bright will address the association. Mrs. Bright is the organizer of Illinois Commerce of Mothers and the Parent-Teacher Associations and her talk is bound to be an interesting one.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the South Division met yesterday afternoon at the Village House. Miss Mancrede of Hull House who has charge of the dramatic work there spoke on dramatization.

A most successful meeting of the High School Parents and Teachers' Association was held at the high school on Monday. Parents and friends visited the different classes all day long and a good many were present in spite of the bad weather. In the afternoon Mr. Knopik, principal of the Waukegan High School, spoke interestingly on "Supervised Study," bringing in illustrations which made a most excellent talk.

Domestic Science Class served coffee and cake to the parents in the English Club Room.

A Girls' Banquet will be given at the high school on the eighteenth, under the auspices of the association. There will be a twenty-five cent dinner served at six-thirty, the tickets of which will be on sale at the high school this week and next up to the sixteenth. Only on account of lack of room and proper facilities, the number of guests must be limited to two hundred and fifty. All high school girls, their mothers and friends are to be guests on this occasion, and especially women graduates or former students at the school. Miss Marguerite Tucker of the domestic science department will have complete charge of the menu.

The principal toast of the evening will be given by Mrs. Katherine McCulloch of Evanston. Other speakers will be, Miss Krieger, who will speak on "Today, Not Tomorrow," Mrs. Parmenter of Lake Forest, who will give a toast to "Our Daughters," a girl student will speak, and an alumna Mrs. H. R. Smith will sing a group of Irish songs. There will be other music and further details which will be published in The Press next week. Mrs. John W. Welch, president of the Parents and Teachers' Association has the affair in charge. A dinner for the boys and their fathers is being planned for a future date.

Ossoli Club

The eighth regular meeting of the Ossoli Club was held in the Highland Park Club House on Thursday afternoon, March second, with Mrs. Otis Beardsley, the president, in the chair. After the business meeting, Mrs. Fyffe as chairman of the Civics and Philanthropy Department, who has charge of the day, announced that Mr. Howard Gross, who was to have spoken, was unable to appear, and then introduced Mr. Ball, commissioner of sanitation. Mr. Ball spoke on "Housing," illustrated by lantern slides. He said that bad housing was usually the result of too rapid growth of cities, which statement he verified with truthful illustrations. He told of how a certain woman in Indiana who was so interested in the question, that she was instrumental in getting a state law passed which forbids the building of more than one house on one lot. The law is in successful operation at the present time. Mr. Ball spoke of housing conditions in Chicago which seemed to be quite bad. Not only is the housing bad, but the food stuffs can not be properly kept and prepared under such conditions. He closed his remarks by stating that the good of the future generation rests on our willingness to face this problem as a serious issue of the day.

The regular meeting of the club will be held in the Highland Park Club House, Thursday, March 16th. There is to be a County Fair given for the benefit of the Ossoli Bathing Beach. All exhibits will be in place by 2:45 P. M. Cafeteria supper will be served after which an interesting entertainment will be given. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Baptist Church Notes

Dr. Schwelder of Chicago will fill the pulpit on Sunday morning.

The One Cent Sale is purely an advertising proposition. It is done to introduce Rexall goods into homes, and by so doing will make more friends. Fred Schumacher.
