Local Affairs of the week

A number of Highland Park people attended a tea on Sunday evening given by Capt. McCawley at the Naval Station.

The Afternoon Euchre Club met with Mrs. E. J. Bock on last Thursday afternoon. The successful prize winners were, Mesdames William Rudolph, Roland Bleimehl and Fred Tucker.

The regular monthly meeting of the local chapter D. A. R. was held at the home of Mrs. W. D. Messinger on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Oliver Schaefer of Evanston, read the paper of the day, and Mrs. W. A. Alexander sang "Serenity," by Mary Turner Salter, and "Sacrament" and "Charity" by McDermott. Mrs. Alexander accompanied herself on the piano. In the absence of the regent, Mrs. Truax, vice regent, had charge of the meeting.

Mrs. James Watson of Elm Place was hostess yesterday afternoon at the second afternoon of music. Mrs. Herbert Smith sang. A few friends gathered informally for the affair.

Mrs. John Osborne was hostess informally to thirty guests at a supper party, Sunday.

Mrs. John Reesman will entertain the North End Embroidery Club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. J. Fyffe will entertain at luncheon today in honor of Miss Harriet Vittum who spoke at the Ossoli Club this morning.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Dorothy Baker of W. Vine Avenue, entertained informally a few friends. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with music and games. Table decorations were in green.

Mr. Walter Damrosch, who conducted the New York Symphony Orchestra at Ravinia Park a number of years ago, appeared at the Auditorium, Chicago, on Sunday, with the New York Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Josef Hofmann, pianist, was soloist. Mr. Damrosch conducted two of his own compositions heard for the first time in Chicago.

The J. U. B. Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Mayme Siljstrom last week. Next Wednesday evening it will meet with Miss Ruth Benson of So. Green Bay Road.

The "Worth While Circle" met on Tuesday evening with Mrs. William Guyot on Onwentsia avenue.

There was a small but very responsive audience at the Highland Park Club house on Tuesday evening to hear Miss Schofield's talk on French war orphans. Miss Fell was unable to appear, but Miss Schofield interested her audience immensely. Her personal acquaintance of the war made her address very touching. She paid a beautiful tribute to America, stating the generosity shown by this country. Miss Schofield's talk cleared up many erroneous statements. The expression "adopting a war orphan" does not necessarily mean to literally adopt the orphan, but to pay annually a certain sum to the support of the orphan, while he is being cared for by his mother or some appointed guardian. The idea is to keep them out of institutions and give them a good start. Contributions taken in at the time of Miss Schofield's talk amounted to eight hundred and fifty dollars.

STRUAT DYKEMA, Tenor

Stuart Dykema, the Chicago tenor has been engaged as soloist at Trinity church. Mr. Dykema has had many years experience both as a signer and teacher. Starting in a boy choir at the age of nine years he has been interested in music continually ever since. He has sung solos in many of the largest churches of the principal cities of the country.

Mr. Dykema is a member of the Rundle School of Music with studios in the Fine Arts building, Chicago, and is filling many oratorio and concert engagements. Along with his other duties Mr. Dykema will devote Friday to teaching in Highland Park using the Parish House of the Trinity church where he will accept a limited number of pupils.

Highland Park Club

Tomorrow evening Mrs. Francis Hodgson Burnett's masterpiece of romantic childhood, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," will be the moving picture attraction. Every child is interested in the tale of this child who so early in life wore the lace and velvet of the English court. The "movies" on Friday evening were certainly very good, "The Galloper," by Richard Harding Davis being the attraction.

The card party date has been changed to the twenty-eighth.

Y. W. C. A. News

The Highwood work is claiming a great deal of attention at present. It might be interesting to many to know the activities that are promoted each week at our Port Clinton headquarters. Monday night we have our Junior Boys' Club; Tuesday afternoon the Junior Girls' Sewing Club; Tuesday evening, the Senior Boys' Club; Wednesday and Friday evenings, Adult Night School; Thursday afternoon, the Senior Girls' Club.

Thus bringing to this center ninety-three boys and girls and twelve men every week for pleasure and profit. The work is so appreciative and responsive that it is a pleasure to have a part in it. A cordial invitation is extended to any who are interested in the project to visit the headquarters at any time that these clubs and classes are in session.

Tuesday evening the Senior Boys' Club under the direction of their leader, Mr. C. G. Alexander gave a very interesting party, a business meeting presided over by Eddie Smith, the president, was conducted previous to the games. A great deal of originality was displayed in their entertainment. Clarence Carlson gave an oration that showed thought, preparation and ability. Nels England and Garritt De Vroeg composed a couple of very interesting songs full of local color, which the boys sang for their guests. Frank Brady had the honor of writing a play which the boys will present later on for a benefit. All of this work was original and the boys deserve great credit for the ability and perseverance they showed. At the conclusion of the program Mr. W. A. Alexander in a very enthusiastic talk encouraged the boys for the stand they have taken and the ambition they have developed and presented each of the four with a golf stick tied with green satin ribbon. Games and light refreshments concluded an evening of pleasure and profit. Much credit is due their leader for the interest and inspiration he has brought into this commendable branch of association work. Mrs. W. D. Miller who is spending the winter in Palm Beach, Florida, sent a coconut in the original shell to the association this past week. It is creating a great deal of interest among the girls at the headquarters and later will be taken to the Port Clinton Center where it will be on exhibition.

Two homeless girls were cared for and restored to their people this week through the Association. Clothes, food and sympathy were bestowed upon them.

Ossoli Club

The next regular meeting of the club will be held in the Highland Park Club House Thursday, March 30th, at 2:45 p. m. Rev. Charles Bayard Mitchell will speak on "The Art of Human Approach." Miss Bertha Harbaugh will play piano selections.

The Highland Park Club House was a scene of gayety on Thursday afternoon when the Ossoli Club held a very attractive "County Fair." The decorations were very clever and were the result of a great deal of work. The booths, all of different decorations, were quite numerous and the displays were wonderful. One could scarcely imagine that food could be made so very attractive.

The following names are those of the prize winners and the articles for which the prize was awarded: Mrs. Dwight Cook, first; Mrs. W. S. Forrest, second; and Mrs. McNally, third, for salads. Miss Jessie Chandler, first; Mrs. O. E. Keller, second; Mrs. F. M. Lowe, third, for desserts. Mrs. R. K. Buckman, Jr., first; Mrs. J. L. Martin, second; Mrs. James Troxel, third, for appetizers. Mrs. John Oliver, first, for baked dishes. Mrs. O. H. Morgan, first; Mrs. A. L. Bournique, second; Mrs. A. J. Metzel, third, for baked meats. Mrs. George McBride, first; Mrs. Paul Bird, second and Mrs. E. H. Raymond, third, for pies and pastry. Mrs. A. J. Metzel, first; Mrs. Carleton Moseley, second; Mrs. Rex Jones, third, for layer cakes. Mrs. Russell Whitman, first; Mrs. Hanson, second; and Miss Shields, third, for loaf cakes; Miss H. K. Jones, first; Mrs. George Bard's maid, Miss Alma Oleson, second; Mrs. H. Sieler, third, for sunshine cakes. Mrs. McCaughy, first; Mrs. J. V. Norcross, second, for small cakes. Mrs. John G. Mott, first; Mrs. C. W. Buckley, second, for doughnuts. Mrs. C. G. Wright, first; Mrs. Charles Follansbee, second, and Mrs. S. W. Miller, third, for breads. Miss Josephine Faxon, first; Miss Francis Buell, second; Miss Florence Shreve, third, for candy. There was also a goodly display of jams, jellies, etc. The judges were from The School of Domestic Arts and Science of Chicago. Other attractions were the "Roulette wheel" where chances on candy were taken and the Colosse Cooker, loaned by the Colosse Company of Janesville, Wis., with a demonstrator. Mr. Earl Gsel loaned his corn popper for the occasion which was certainly great for the "kiddies." There was a grocery store, a post office, a fortune telling booth, and exhibits of all sorts of fancy work making a very pretty display. The high school and Elm Place School had displays of their work in sewing. The Ossoli Club wishes to thank those people who are not members of the Ossoli Club, but whose donations were so cheerfully given, and who appeared at the fair, and liberally spent their money, thus making the day more of a "Highland Park Day" than an Ossoli Day, the very thing that the club wished to do.

As near as can be reported now, the receipts for the affair amount to a sum over eight hundred dollars.

The supper, served in cafeteria style was well attended and was followed by a play "The Deatrice Skule." Too much credit can not be given to those taking part, every one doing a great deal to make it the success what it was. The "skule band" was great and made several hits during the evening. Very clever costumes and good make-up featured the play. Those in charge of the entertainment were, Mrs. Daniel Cobb, Mrs. Charles Everett, and Mrs. Walter Baldwin.

High School Notes

Two hundred and sixty high school girls and their mothers sat down to dinner Saturday evening at the new lunch room. The occasion was very successful and too much credit can not be given to those who made the affair what it was. The menu, in charge of Miss Tucker was most complete and the dinner very nicely served by a number of the boys who did very well indeed. Debortations were all in green and were very artistic. After dinner speeches and music formed a delightful entertainment.

The Lake Forest College Glee Club concert given under the auspices of the Garrick and Forum Clubs of the high school on Monday evening was very good. Owing to many other attractions there was not a very large attendance. Informal dancing was enjoyed in the girls' gymnasium afterward.

There was a meeting of the finance committee of the High School Cadet Corps, on the fourteenth. The treasurer's report opened the business of the evening. In the report was the information regarding the purchasing of uniforms and band instruments. Mr. Sandwick then spoke of the progress of military training in the high school and the benefit it is to the school. He described the style of the one hundred and sixteen uniforms purchased and added that the guns were expected soon. He spoke of the bodily exercise the training involves, and of the character building as a result of the training. He stated that more money is needed for other equipment. The president, Mr. H. S. Vail spoke of the progress of the High School Cadet Corps League of Illinois.
