Trinity Church Notes

The preacher at the Wednesday evening Lenten service on March 22 was the Rev. A. A. McCallum, rector of St. Elizabeth's Church, Glencoe. On March 29th, the preacher will be the Rev. Dr. Arthur Rogers, of St. Mark's, Evanston. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

The musical service rendered by the choir on last Sunday afternoon was well done, the improvement under Mr. Webster's leadership, is gratifying, especially with regard to the singing of the boys. An auxiliary or reserve class has been established from which boys will be drafted into the regular choir. The next musical evening is set for Palm Sunday.

At the request of a number of ladies Dr. Wolcott has arranged to give a series of five instructions upon the Old Testament as affected by modern criticism. The first of these instructions will be given in the church on Saturday afternoon, March 25th, at 3:30 o'clock, and the others on the following Tuesday afternoons at the same hour. Attendance at these instructions is of course free, and all who are interested in the subject are cordially invited to come.

Presbyterian Church Notes

As a result of the visitation of the previous week there was a large attendance at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday. Next Sunday morning the pastor will continue the series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer, taking for his text "Give us this day our daily bread."

This week has been designated as SELF-DENIAL-WEEK in the life of this church, in response to the needs of the Foreign Missionary Board of the church in meeting the unusual conditions caused by the war. The sessions have asked $500.00 in Self-Denial Offerings on the part of the members of the congregation.

An event of unusual interest in this church is the Annual Church dinner, in connection with the annual meeting of the church to be held in the parlors of the church one week from next Monday, April 3rd. Invitations are being issued to all members of the church and all regular subscribers to the church support.

This church is joining with other churches in Chicago and environs in the observance of "Go-to-Church Sunday," April 2nd, and "Go to Church Season," April 2nd, to Easter-April 23rd.
