Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

The annual dinner and election of officers of the Highland Park Club took place on Saturday evening at the club house. One hundred and twenty-two guests and members attended the affair. The following were among those who entertained dinner guests: Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Van Schaick, Mr. and Mrs. John Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Vail, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckley, Mrs. and Mrs. E. K. Buckman, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bard, Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw Egan, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Metzler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knight, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Page, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Norcross and Mr. and Mrs. George McBride.

The dinner was a very good one, well planned and nicely served. The house was decorated with ferns, potted plants and flowers, all of which formed a most artistic whole. Dancing and cards were features of entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sullivan of East Park Avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Marie, to Mr. Gregory A. Burns of Minneapolis.

Miss Annie Cobb of E. Laurel Ave. will entertain informally on Saturday at bridge honoring Miss Linn of Minneapolis who is a guest at the McCawley home on E. Vine Ave.

Mrs. Franklin Hussey of N. Linden Ave. will entertain informally tomorrow at luncheon for a few friends.

Nearly one hundred and fifty people gathered at the North End M. E. Church on Tuesday evening for an "all church gathering." A very good dinner prepared by the Ladies Aid Society, was served by the boys of the S. M. B. Club. After dinner there was a most interesting entertainment consisting of music and speeches. Those who spoke were Rev. Sweetland of Lake Bluff, Messrs. W. E. Blutsch, Lee Stoker, Oscar Meyer, R. E. Winter, Ernest Gail and Rev. Tetreau. The church was very beautifully decorated in wild flowers, the color scheme, gold and green, being carried out in every detail. The Epworth League did the decorating. In every respect this gathering was an "all church" affair, as every organization did their best to make it such a successful event.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Ruth Coffin Collins' dancing class will hold a cotillon in Witten's Hall on E. Central Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer A. Montgomery of 328 N. Sheridan Rd. announce the marriage of their niece, Miss Genevieve Major to William X. Hall of Panama City, formerly of Chicago. The wedding took place Easter Sunday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Green at Clistobal, Panama. Mrs. Green is a sister of the bride. The wedding trip will be a visit to their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery.

This morning at seven o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic Church occurred the marriage of Miss Frances Green and Mr. Harvey Witten, both young people residents of this city and well known. Miss Elsie Witten, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, while John Gallagher acted as best man. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. J. D. O'Neil, a wedding breakfast to the bridal party was served. Mr. and Mrs. Witten left for a short honeymoon trip and after June 1st will be at home to their many friends on Moraine Rd.

On May 17th will occur the marriage of Miss Helen Marie Herberick, daughter of Mrs. Mary Emmett, and Mr. George Clinton Clark, son of Mrs. Ellen Clark. The ceremony will be read by Father Vattman, of Wilmette, at Wilmette.

On Monday evening the Philathea Class entertained the Baracca Class of the First United Evangelical Church at a very pretty progressive May party. The invitations read "that the car would leave promptly at eight o'clock" from the home of the Misses Olive and Faith Haebele where the young people congregated, the girls being very attractively dressed in light dresses and "May hats." From the Haebele some the gay party journeyed to the home of Mrs. Arthur Tillman where a programme of readings, musical numbers and addresses was given. After a delightful hour spent there, on to the home of Miss Emma Gieser the young people went; here they enjoyed the crowning of the May queen and were served sandwiches and coffee. Then they proceeded on their way until they came to the home of Mrs. Frederick Noerenberg; here they remained for the rest of the evening and enjoyed games and ice cream and cake. An attractive May basket was left at the home where each stop was made. The Baracca Class admit that they never had a better time. Rev. Arthur Meierhoff of Joliet, Mr. Herman Drieske and Mr. Wickman of Chicago were the out of town guests.

Moraine Hotel Notes

Mr. Jack Vilas, who has become famous as an aviator, with Mrs. Vilas, child and nurse, have taken the Trig Waller house and are at the Moraine for a few weeks until the house is made ready. Mr. Vilas' hydroplane is stored at Lake Forest at present and we may expect to see it often in Highland Park this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prindle and family, who have taken a house at Winnetka, are at the Moraine for the month of May, while their new house is being altered to suit them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ford, who have spent several winters at the Moraine, have gone east for a few weeks. Mr. Ford has retired from the auditorship of the Chicago and Eastern Railroad and retires after being 50 years in the railroad business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. McKinley of New York, Miss Helen Bartlett and sister of New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Boushey and family of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morris and family of Chicago are among the late arrivals.

Dr. and Mrs. Ullmann and family, who are building a home on Montgomery Ave., are at the Moraine for the summer and expect to move into their new home about October 1st.

Mrs. I. N. Phillips of Bloomington has taken a suite of rooms at the Moraine and will make this her permanent residence. The late Mr. Phillips was Supreme Court Reporter and was very well known among the lawyers of the state.

Cards are out for a Dinner Dance at the hotel on next Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wardrop of Chicago are again at the Moraine, and Mrs. L. P. McKinley of New York has come to spend the month of May at the Hotel.

North End M. E. Church

Services are held in the church as follows: Mid-week service, Wednesday evening at seven forty-five; Sunday services, Sunday School at nine forty-five; Junior League at two-thirty; Epworth League at six forty-five; Public Worship at eight o'clock. This evening there will be an Epworth League business meeting.

Tomorrow the cantata rehearsal will take place. This cantata, in charge of Mr. Hiram Nichols, will be given on Friday evening, May 12th. Miss Helen Mayer and Miss Priscilla Carver will play in connection with the cantata. There will be a small charge. The music is "Cross and Crown," by E. L. Ashford, and will be directed by Mr. Hamp of Chicago.

At the Sub-District Rally held in Wilmette on Friday evening the Epworth League of this church won the banner awarded for the best representation.
