

The Proper Handling of Milk Begins With The Proper Care of The Cow

The greatest amount of care in bottling and delivering is of but little value unless the milk is produced from healthy cattle which are kept clean and fed with whole-some feed.

Milk from animals diseased in any way is abnormal. It is apt to cause intestinal disturbances at least and may even contain ptomaines which are poisonous to the consumer.

This applies to pasteurized milk as well as natural milk for pasteurization cannot remedy such defects. ARCADY FARM cattle are tuberculin tested every six months and are examined every week by a competent Veterinarian.

They are kept scrupulously clean and are fed a scientific balanced ration promoting the production of a well flavored normal milk, safe and pure for everybody.

Y. W. C. A. News

The Highwood Boys' Club presented a most attractive play and entertainment on Friday evening at the Bartlette Theatre, Highwood. Over two hundred and fifty people attended the affair. The play written by Frank Brady was a great success as it was hoped it would be, Frank Brady and Carl Hansen taking the important roles. Pearl Garrity, Eleanor Bartlette and Fannie Webster appeared in an amusing little play. Louis Phillip and Gertrude de Vroog gave a Jewish dialogue of their own composition which was screamingly funny and well done. Fannie Webster, Pearl Garrity, Eleanor Bartlette, Ruth Hook, Florence Brown and Miss Brown played a pretty sketch called "Fudge and the Burglar."

All those who assisted in this entertainment can be given a great deal of credit for the enthusiastic way in which it went off. Fifty dollars was the total receipts, which will be placed in the athletic fund of the club.

Miss Cushing's Commonweal Club and their chaperons spent last Thursday in Chicago. The morning was devoted to visiting Hull House and the Mary Crane Nursery, both of which proved very interesting to the girls, especially the latter place with its hundreds of babies and little people all under six years of age. The Open Air School for Tubercular Children was also visited. The afternoon was spent at Ringling Brothers' Circus and they came home a tired but happy set of girls.

The White Elephant Sale is drawing lots of people, both those who give and those who buy. It will close Saturday evening.

It is not too late to make donations or to purchase articles of usefulness.
