Presbyterian Church Notes

A comparatively new memorial day is to be observed on Sunday, May 14th. It is in recognition of the one we hold in tender and most reverent affection and memory and its observance is welcomed with such enthusiastic approval that we marvel at its recent origin.

Mothers' day originated in the desire of a church to pay tribute to one of its noble mothers whose loving work in their midst had ended with accomplishment of this desire came the realization of a growing lack of tender consideration for absent mothers among worldly-minded, busy grown-up children; of the thoughtless neglect of home ties engendered by the whirl and pressure of modern life, and the lack of deference to parents of children of the present generation—the need of a reminder of a loving, unselfish mother.

It is a custom fostered by the church because of the close relation between it and the family in Christian communities. The celebration of the day is universal within and without the churches; with the opportunity to attend fitting memorial services offered by the churches to all those who feel the tender sentiment of the day.

The Highland Park Presbyterian Church will hold special services, to which all mothers are invited as guests of honor. The service will be a tribute to motherhood.

Like other memorial days with their Christmas and Thanksgiving spirit and Easter lilies it has an outward personal expression in some special attention to mother—a letter, flowers or a visit.

Service at eleven o'clock Sunday morning.

On Monday afternoon the Home Department of the Missionary Society met at the church. The subject of the day was "Alaska." Mrs. Stewart R. Brown gave a talk on the Sheldon Jackson Training school in Alaska. This was followed by Mrs. H. M. Bacon's talk on the Presbyterian Hospital at Haines, Alaska. Mrs. H. B. Roberts read a chapter from "Alaska Days with John Muir" by Dr. Young. Mrs. D. M. Shaw sang a group of songs accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. N. Kimball. A social hour followed the meeting. The next meeting will take place Monday afternoon, June 12th, when Dr. McKean will speak on "Siam."

Elm Place School Notes

Clever batting enabled the Elm Place team to defeat Wilmette. Singles were made by Duffy 3, Bahr 2, Arnswald 4, Kramer 1, Morton 3; doubles by Arnswald 1, Morton 2. In the ninth inning Arnswald knocked out a three-base hit with two on bases. Batteries on Elm Place were Arnswald and Morton.

The children of the Elm Place school, those of Ravinia, of Lincoln, and of the high school, will give a Shakespearean pageant some time about June 1st. There will be a procession through the streets which will end in the Sheahan Woods. On the wooded green there will be scenes from Shakespearean plays, pantomime acting, music and all sorts of peasant dancing. Music will be furnished by the high school orchestra. The program, though not completed, will include a Maypole dance by the grammar school children and short lively scenes from the senior class pageant given by the seniors, selections of the Shakespearean songs. There will be pretty costumes and other features relative to early Shakespearean plays.

Miss Alice McElrath of the high school will have charge of the pageant and will be ably assisted by teachers in the grammar schools.

Fort Sheridan

Mrs. D. L. Tate has as her guest, Mrs. E. R. Tupper of Honolulu who is en route to New York.
