High School Notes

Among the teachers who will leave this year are Miss McElrath, Mr. Craigo and Miss Marguerite Tucker who will take a year's leave of absence for advanced study in Columbia University. Her successor has not yet been appointed but will be within a few days.

Miss McElrath, who during her stay has won the love and respect of the pupils and the teachers, will take up work with her father, who is advanced in years and desires her to be with him next year. In her place comes Miss Elizabeth Southwick of Chicago, a graduate of the Cumnock School of Oratory of Northwestern University. Mr. L. W. Haviland, superintendent of the school at Waukega, Ill., where she formerly taught, says, "She is an excellent teacher, instructs well, disciplines well, has a pleasing personality and a good character. Her influence is good. She is an indefatigable worker and has a good disposition."

On account of a reorganization of the Science Department, which puts all science in hands of two men, who will not teach in any other departments as they have been doing in past years is the cause of Mr. Craigo leaving.

The Latin classes have been made broken up since Miss Augusta Stuebel left in the middle of the year to accept a position at Nicholas Senn. Her place has been filled temporarily with no less than three teachers. The man to fill that position next term is Dr. Samuel Hart Newhall, a graduate of Harvard University, now teaching in the Hill School, Pottstown, Pennsylvania. Dr. Newhall comes with highest records from Phillips Exeter Academy and Hill School. Mr. J. S. Ford, assistant head master of Exeter, says his scholarship is of unquestionable high order. He has a pleasing personality, a gentleman of high opinion, character and refinement, successful as a disciplinarian, well liked by the boys, gentle but firm.

All of the other twenty-two teachers will remain with the school the coming year.

Mr. R. L. Sandwick gave the address at the graduation exercises at Lake Bluff this week.

Elm Place School Notes

Miss Jennie Whitten, who has been instructor of the sixth grade, has resigned to continue her studies at the Illinois University. She is going back to study until she gets the Masters Degree. Her successor is to be Miss Clara I. White, who has during the past few years taught the eighth grade at Lombard, Illinois.

Mr. Wilbert Kensier, manual training instructor for the past two years, is leaving to do special school work in public school art. Mr. George Green of Byron, Ill., who is to have work in manual training will also have charge of organized play in the upper grades.

This week sees the end of all school work for the term and is certainly filled with many activities. On Monday afternoon the eighth grade gave a party for the graduating class in Sweeney's woods.

Yesterday afternoon, Flag Day, exercises were observed in the school auditorium and on the lawn. During the afternoon and evening yesterday there were exhibits of school work, including various kinds of hand work, drawing, and written work in the different rooms.

Tomorrow morning the regular general assembly will take place, with class day exercises and honorable mentions of school work. Features of the meeting. In the evening the graduating exercises will take place at the school.
