The Social Side of Life
Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

If June is the month of roses and brides, it is also the month of many social activities, at least the Observer has found it so. Miss Marjorie Small whose wedding day has been set for Saturday has been the center of many social affairs during last week and this week. On Wednesday of last week, the Misses Neilson of Evanston, sisters of the groom-elect, were hostesses at luncheon at their home in Evanston, and in the evening, Miss Dorothy Loudon was hostess at a dinner dance at the Illinois Athletic Club, Chicago. On Sunday two of the ushers in the bridal party, Messrs. Howard Cheney and Charles Cheyney, took the members of the party down the Fox River to the Wild Rose Inn for dinner. On Tuesday Mrs. Colvth of Evanston, an aunt of the bride-elect, was hostess at luncheon, and in the evening, Miss Catherine Cushing was hostess at dinner at the Moraine, the opening dinner-dance of the season. Last evening saw the end of the pre-nuptial gayeties when Mrs. A. P. Smith was hostess at the bridal dinner. At four o'clock Saturday afternoon, Miss Marjorie Small, daughter of Mr. Edward A. Small, and Mr. Walter Neilson, son of Mrs. Neilson of Evanston, will be married on the lawn at the A. P. Smith residence, with Rev. P. C. Wolcott reading the service. Mrs. Frank Wymond, sister of the bride-elect, will be matron of honor; the bridesmaids are to be the Misses Catherine Cushing, Dorothy Loudon, of this city, Dorothy Sargeant of Glencoe and Adelaide Neilson of Evanston. Two flower girls are to be Caroline and Barbara Bulard. The groom-elect will have as his best man, Mr. Ralph Lidster, and ushers will be Messrs. Thomas Bishop, Winnetka, Howard Cheney, Charles Cheyney of Evanston, Lawrence Small of this city, and Herbert Gay of Newark, N. J. A reception will follow the ceremony, and after a honeymoon trip the young couple will be at home at 2223 Colfax Ave., Evanston, after August first.

The O. H. B. Club met at the H. F. Maechtle residence on North Second Street Tuesday evening.

Mrs. William E. Bletsch entertained thirty members of the Missionary Auxiliary of a Chicago Methodist church yesterday afternoon. Afternoon tea was served.

Major and Mrs. C. C. Clark of Fort Sheridan were host and hostess at a pretty dinner party on Monday evening, honoring Mr. John Irwin Marshall's birthday. After dinner the guests danced and played bridge, amid pretty decorations of syringes and ferns.

Mrs. John Grenville Mott will be hostess at luncheon on Tuesday, followed by two tables of auction in the afternoon.

The G. B. C. Club entertained about forty guests at a beach party on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mather Smith have issued invitations to thirty guests for an anniversary party Tuesday evening of next week. There will be a dance followed by a buffet supper. A Hawaiian orchestra will furnish the music.

Mrs. M. Warner of North Second Street will entertain several ladies on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. O. G. St. Peter was hostess yesterday afternoon to the North End Embroidery Club.

A wedding of interest to Highland Park people was that in Milwaukee of Miss Emily Elizabeth Scarborough, formerly of this city, to Osborne Stevenson Burke, which took place Saturday evening at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Blanche Barret of Louisville, Ky., as maid of honor, and Miss Winifred Cox of Galesburg, Ill., and Miss Eleanor Burke of Jamesville, Wis., as bridesmaids. The ushers were J. B. Scarborough and Henry Scarborough, Jr., both of Chicago. The bride's gown was of white satin and tulle with tunic of silver lace. She wore a tulle veil held by a tiara and caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley, sweet peas, roses and orchids. The maid of honor's gown was of Nile green taffeta and tulle and pink rosebuds. The bridesmaids wore Ward rose taffeta and tulle and carried colonial bouquets of sweet peas and mignonette. A reception followed the ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scarborough of 444 Wyoming Place, Milwaukee, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Burke will be at home after August 1 at 527 Stowell avenue, Milwaukee.

The Luther League of the Swedish Lutheran Church met in the church on Tuesday evening. The girls of the league served the refreshments and were in charge of the program.

On Saturday evening the girls of the Luther League gave a most delightful miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Ida Naas at the home of Miss Esther Swanson of Highwood.

Mrs. Charles Freberg will entertain the Euchre Club this afternoon.

Mrs. Harrison Riley, who is well known in this city, is to be hostess at a reception on Saturday afternoon. A number of local people will attend.

Mrs. Gerard Van Schaick was hostess to nine guests at luncheon Saturday, honoring her guest, Mrs. A. G. Van Schaick of Chicago.

The wedding of Miss Elma M. Wagner and Mr. Oscar J. Meachtie took place on Thursday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meachtie, Sr. Rev. C. G. Unangst officiated. Only the immediate family and a few friends were present. After the wedding supper, the young couple left for a lake trip to Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mrs. A. L. Adams of Winnetka entertained the Worth While Circle at six o'clock tea on Tuesday evening.

Just Us Girls Club met with Miss Helen Hill of North Green Bay Road last evening.

A special meeting of the North Shore Chapter, D. A. R. was held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Egan on Monday afternoon. The meeting was called to hear Mrs. Egan's report on the Continental Congress which met recently in Washington, D. C. The guests report a very interesting meeting. The house was pretty in decorations of the wonderful "Egandale" flowers. This meeting is the last until fall.

Mrs. Axel Larson of North St. John's Avenue entertained last Thursday afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Rostand of Elbow Lake, Minnesota.

Mrs. Alfred Benson will entertain the Martha Society of the Swedish church this afternoon.

Mrs. Nels Peterson of Grayslake, formerly of this city, was pleasantly surprised last Wednesday by the Martha Society of the Swedish church of this city. The society presented her with a beautiful silver flower basket. Mrs. Peterson was the president of the Martha Society before leaving for Grayslake.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mather Smith were host and hostess at a dinner party for twelve guests honoring Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris of Winter Park, Fla who are staying at the Blackstone Hotel, Chicago.

Moraine Hotel Notes

There was a lively afternoon on last Saturday at the hotel on the occasion of the visit of the Hotel Men's Mutual Benefit Association. The party had arrived at Chicago from Buffalo on the Northland in the morning and, after motoring out to the Naval Training Station to witness a special drill, stopped at the Moraine on their return where they were served a buffet lunch as the guests of Mr. Cushing. There were about 350 ladies and gentlemen in the party representing hotels all over the country, and after a most enjoyable trip on the boat lasting five days, starting at Buffalo on the previous Monday, disembarked at the Moraine, leaving here for their homes.

The new tea room is now finished and was dedicated on Wednesday by a party of forty ladies from Chicago who were served afternoon tea.

The dinner dances were opened for the season on Tuesday evening and will be given each Tuesday and Friday evening hereafter. The wonderful Pierce orchestra has been engaged for these affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Sidley and family are at the Moraine for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Furst, who were guests all last summer have returned and will be at the hotel during this season.

Mr. Ira N. Morris, our Minister to Sweden, and his family, will remain at the hotel until they leave for the East preparatory to sailing in about two weeks.

George Scudder Miller has rented his apartment at 321 Belden avenue until Oct. 1 and is at the Moraine hotel in Highland Park. His sister, Mrs. Katherine Sager, has gone east. Mr. Miller plans an eastern trip about the middle of July. He will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Lacey on a yachting trip down the Hudson.

North End M. E. Church

The services in the church are as follows: Sunday School at 9:45; Junior League at 2:30; Epworth League at 6:45; evening service at 8:00; Tuesday evenings, S. M. B. Club; Wednesday services, prayer meeting at 7:45, teachers' training class 8:15, choir rehearsal at 8:45; Thursday evening, Girls' Sewing Club at 7:30. The cantata has been postponed for one week and will be held on the thirtieth of this month.

There is to be an entertainment in the church on Thursday evening, the twenty-ninth. There will be various kinds of music, with readings and impersonations. There will be a small charge for the entertainment which will benefit the church. The Epworth League is in charge of this entertainment.

On Sunday evening the Epworth League visited the Lake Bluff Epworth League and the choir from this church furnished the music. Societies from other adjacent cities were also present.

Lincoln School

The children receiving honorable mention for perfect attendance were: Agnes Mooney, who was neither absent nor tardy during the past two years, and Magdalene Bock, Emmett Krueger, Enoch Metzger, Margaret Krueger, Carl Schaefer and Warren Stanger, who were neither absent nor tardy during the past year.

Among the teachers who are leaving are Miss Allan, whose place will be filled by Miss Helen Hammond of De Kalb, Ill., and Miss Clara Gilbert, who has had charge of the third and fourth grades in the Ravinia School, whose place will be filled by Miss Margaret Ducker of Chicago.

Miss Jessie Cain, who has been the kindergarten assistant this year, is to take the position of director, as Miss Lewis will not return.

Y. W. C. A. News

Miss Ore Stein, the fourth B grade teacher at Elm Place, will take Mrs. Searcy's place as secretary of the Y. W. C. A. headquarters. Mrs. Searcy, who has been very ill in Oak Park hospital, is improving and expects to be back at her work in a short time.

All those who are interested in the Woman's Exchange, which will open in the gymnasium, July first, are requested to send samples to the headquarters by that date. Besides all kinds of bakery goods there will be a call for crochet work and other fancy work.

Exmoor Club Notes

On Saturday afternoon an eighteen hole match play against par was played. The winners were: Classes A and B, T. H. Sheridan, 1 down; Class C, Edwin Page, 4 down; Class D, A. H. Pixley, 5 down.

Two hundred guests dined and danced at Exmoor on Saturday evening. The Glee Club from the University of Chicago entertained the guests with attractive musical numbers. Dancing took place on the out of door platform.

Today the bridge and luncheon parties for lady guests begin, and will continue during the summer, every Thursday.

Tomorrow evening Mrs. T. C. Butz and Mrs. H. L. Glidden will be hostesses at a dance at the club.

High School Notes

On Thursday evening of last week the seniors held their commencement exercises at Ravinia Park. The class numbered sixty-three and appeared in very pretty musical numbers, accompanied by Mr. Morgan, the musical director at high school. Those winning honors were Lois Dixon Greene, who was awarded the '08 Valedictory Cup; Ernest Osborne, the '14 Lloyd Metzel Cup for oratory, and George Bolan, the '07 medal of honor.

Obituary

On Friday night occurred the death of Mr. Michael Hullahan, a retired soldier, of old age, at the home of Mr. R. Shannon of Highwood. He was born in Ireland, but has lived with the Shannon family for the past twenty-five years. In 1861 he enlisted in the army and served in the rebellion. Services were held at St. James' Catholic Church on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Father Gates officiated. Burial took place at Fort Sheridan Cemetery.

Baptist Church Notes

A few members of the Ladies' Guild met with Mrs. George Howe on the County Line Road for a Kensington on Tuesday afternoon.
