SCHOOL PUPILS AID ARDEN SHORE

Graduates and Lower Graders of Lincoln School Give "Midsummer Night's Dream"
Arden Shore Camp was benefited on Tuesday evening when the eighth grade class of Lincoln school assisted by the lower grades gave "Midsummer Night's Dream" on the green at Ridgewood, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kimball's home on South Green Bay road. This was a repetition of the play given by the pupils for their graduation exercises, and the performance moved along smoothly and easily. Mrs. Margaret Freeman, Miss Theresa Peters, Mrs. Mabel Falch, who were in charge of the play, the dancing and the music are to be complimented on this artistic production.
Different kinds of refreshments were sold by the members of the Alumni of Lincoln school, who wore costumes of pretty Greek design. Much credit must be given to all those who worked hard and long on this affair.

BOY SCOUT REFUSES REWARD

Lives up to His Ideals, Enjoys Doing the Right Thing
A real boy scout came into the Press office Monday morning and returning a lost bag, which had been advertised in last week's issue, refused the offered reward, a sum of five dollars. If you read the "want ad" column last week your eye must have fallen on this:
Lost—Lady's black traveling bag, labeled A. C. K. Lost between Roger Williams Ave., Ravinia, and Central Ave., Highland Park. Reward if returned to Highland Park Press.
The reward would have interested most any person, but this boy scout who lives up to his "boy scout ideals" refused it without a sign of disappointment.
How much good this boy scout movement has done will probably never be measured in exact data, but surely this one right motive which prompted this lad to be willing to have done the right thing, is a big help to both the promoters of the movement and those who are taking part.

OLAF LINDBLOOM ARRESTED

Charged with Interfering with Police Officer in Discharge of Duty
Mr. Olaf Lindbloom was arrested Monday charged with interfering with Police Officer Howe while taking a prisoner to jail. At a hearing before Police Magistrate Boylan the case was continued until July 6th at the request of the defendant. It seems that Officer Howe was trying to disperse a disorderly crowd late Sunday night when one of the members became unruly and showed a disposition to fight. It was while taking the offender to jail that Lindbloom is charged with interfering.

WINNETKA VILLAGE HEAD OFF TO WAR

Waukegan Ball Teams Doing Good Work. Battery C With Major A. V. Smith in Command Now Encamped at Springfield

Village Head Off to War
Perhaps never before in the history of the village of Winnetka has the official personnel been so depleted as it is at present as the result of the threatened war and the sudden departure of thirty-seven of its citizens to join the ranks of their various regiments now quartered in Springfield pending the final summons to the front.

Just at present the office of R. L. Fitzgerald, the village manager, is in charge of his stenographer, owing to the fact that Mr. Fitzgerald was compelled to drop the many important matters of local concern to join his comrades of Battery E, which left for Camp Lincoln last week. His assistant, D. M. Smith, has also left town to join his company in a Purdue battery.

Not only are the offices of the village hall badly crippled by the loss of their official heads, but the town is at present without any judicial authority.

In addition to the absence of Justice Fred O. Mason, who has joined his squad in Battery E at Springfield, and John S. Miller, Jr., now in camp with Battery C, Carlton Prouty is absent from town on a vacation with his wife and family.—Winnetka Talk.

Waukegan Teams Win

The two Waukegan ball teams are getting in good trim for the long looked for series with Highland Park. Last Sunday McCann's Whales had a little taste of dark meat when they got away with the long end of a 4 to 3 score with the colored Giants. It took ten rounds, however, to perform the ceremony. While this was being done the Waukegan Giants' West Side aggregation copped off the first number in a series with the Evanston Feds, by a score of 3 to 1. At that it was a hard fought game, fifteen human souls were left on the bags calling in vain for assistance.

Battery C in Springfield

Major A. V. Smith, one of Lake County's candidates for state's attorney, will probably do his campaigning on the Mexican border. The artillery battalion under his command is now encamped at Springfield awaiting orders to go to the front. Among the prominent Lake County members of his battalion are Joe Medill Patterson and R. R. McCormick.

Parade Feature of Celebration

Present indications point to the fact that the Fourth of July parade in Waukegan this year will be one of the largest and most successful in the history of the city. There will be thousands of people in line, together with large numbers of floats and decorated automobiles. The parade is in charge of Charles A. Wornack, acting as the general vice-chairman.
The grand marshal of the parade is Lieut. Peterson of the Naval Station. His chief of staff is C. S. Cartborne of Waukegan. The first portion of the parade is the industrial division. This will be in charge of William R. White as marshal. There will be 24 floats in this division.
Services of the Hon. William E. Mason, former United States senator from Illinois have been secured as principal speaker.

The committees feel highly gratified that Senator Mason has agreed to come. He is not only greatly interested in the spirit of Americanization, and a splendid speaker along these lines, but the senator still retains a keen interest in Waukegan, having formerly made his residence there.
