TAKES COURSE IN CORSET FITTING

Mrs. F. B. Rudolph Attends Gossard Salesmanship School in Chicago This Week

Attends Gossard Salesmanship School
 The Chas. H. Warren Co. store has sent their corsetiere, Mrs. F. B. Rudolph, to attend the Gossard Training School for saleswomen in Chicago. She will remain there during the present week. This school is an innovation in that it accepts only saleswomen who have practical experience and who are ready to take post-graduate work. It is just like a doctor or lawyer attending a university to get his doctor or lawyer degree.

The Chas. H. Warren Co. store is to be congratulated on its advanced idea of rendering service in every department of their store. It seems that salesmanship in its various forms such as corset fitting, service and the study of turnovers is becoming important enough to deserve the careful thought of the best doctors in both colleges and business—many of the universities now having very complete courses in selling activities.

It is hoped Mrs. Rudolph will be successful in her work, and that she will be able to obtain her diploma, which will be her reward, if she passes the final examinations.

Presbyterian Church Notes

Dr. J. W. McKean, M.D., medical missionary from the Presbyterian Mission Station at Chiengmai, Siam, will be the guest of Rev. R. Calvin Dobson over Sunday, and will preach the sermon next Sunday morning in the local Presbyterian Church, telling of his wonderful hospital work among the lepers. Dr. McKean recently visited the city and spoke before the Woman's Missionary Union of this church in such an interesting way that the request was made that he come again. He was also one of the speakers at the final meeting of the Highland Park Hospital Association. The service Sunday morning begins promptly at eleven o'clock and closes shortly after twelve.

The pastor of the church will speak at the open air camp at Arden Shore in the afternoon, and the vesper service at the Presbyterian Home will be conducted by Dr. Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Wilmette.

Additional Society

Mrs. N. A. Larson of McDaniels Ave., entertained twelve ladies informally on Friday afternoon. Prize winners at euchre were Mrs. Belda Krutzer, Mrs. Geo. Vetter and Mrs. Charles Sack.

Mrs. Charles McNear entertained at nine tables of bridge on Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served on the lawn.

Mr. Robert Hussey and Miss Grace Andrews are among those entertaining at dinner at Exmoor tonight at the Junior dinner-dance.

Miss Charlotte Yoe, Mrs. D. M. Hanson and Mrs. Anna B. Wickes are entertaining at luncheon and bridge today at Exmoor.

Ebenezer Evangelical

Today, July 20th, is the annual Sunday school picnic at Central Park. Sunday school at 10:00 a. m.

Cool Breezes

from Western Electric FANS

HOW refreshing it is to step out of the baking hot sun and be greeted by cool breezes. It freshens the surrounding atmosphere and puts life into you.

Our little home fan that can be carried wherever needed is a summer comfort that every housewife should have—can be operated at high, low or moderate speed—costs about 1/4 of a cent per hour to run. We have fans for every use. Take a few minutes to-day and come in to look over our line.
