As we journey through life, in this hot weather, there are few spots comfortable enough for existence. One of these few spots is the Highland Park bathing beach. There is nothing that can be said in this column that would be as complimentary to the management as to watch the kiddies and grown ups forget the almost unbearable climatic conditions, imposed upon us by the inconsiderate weather man, in a dip into the cool, sweet waters of Lake Michigan. From a standpoint of charity and uplift it is a wonderful success and we from Deerfield want to register a unanimous vote of thanks for the courtesies extended to us.

BRIEF AND BREEZY

Col. Roosevelt may be expected to announce that John M. Parker is not of the slightest strategic importance anyhow.

"Every inch a soldier" applies also to the cost of modern war progress.

What the candidates need is a Cap. Koenig to pilot them through deep political waters.

Bishop Brent announces that the Moros seek racial uplift, which implies a disposition to abandon the bolt for the bomb.

The Jersey Coast sharks are man-eaters—they show no disposition to bite into suffragettes.

Naturally there were no prohibitionists on the Deutschland. Whatever it is, it is no water-wagen.

In this kind of weather officers would better beware about telling their men on the Texas border to "keep cool."

Even were a "stable Government" set up in Mexico it would be difficult to keep the pigs and monkeys out of it.

No doubt England's Indian troops are able to advance to the attack under the cover of their own darkness.

Candidate Hughes' silence is becoming positively uproarious. He does not even spread his golf scores broadcast.

"Interests" are at work on this side of the Mexican line to paint the late murderer Huerta as a martyr and a victim of democracy. But then "interests" are always at work.

Besides the man eating sharks, Uncle Sam is menaced by the ravenous interests that seek the restoration of a robber tariff.

Purveyors of impure food to the army will quickly learn that the country is less tolerable of such abominable practices than it was in 1898.

That Kansas woman who has never seen a saloon has not missed much.

Lloyd George is showing that the greatest man in England can be a wishman.

Col. Roosevelt says that he did not leave the Progressive party but that it left him. And at the post, apparently.

During the prevalence of the high prices for drugs many citizens have taken to fresh air, sunshine and good foods, with excellent results.

"The Freezer with the Aerating Dasher"

Thrusts wonderful of all freezers. By means of its aerating dasher it works its way into every particle of the freezing cream, making ice cream that is a revelation in texture and delicacy. It breaks all records in speed—makes perfect ice cream in 3 minutes.

Requires much less labor and uses less ice and salt than any other freezer. See it before you buy a freezer.
