

This is the package that holds the cigarettes

that do for smokers what no other cigarette has ever done for them before—they satisfy and yet they're MILD

Chesterfield CIGARETTES

"No Wonder They Satisfy!"
(—and yet are MILD)

It's the pure Turkish tobacco in Chesterfield Cigarettes that does it. The famous Chesterfield blend contains the highest-quality Turkish tobaccos—CAVALLA for its aroma; XANTHOS for its fragrance; SHIVANA for its sweetness; SAMBON for its richness.

20 for 10c

They SATISFY!
—and yet they're MILD

ILLINOIS NEWS ITEMS IN BRIEF

Paragraphs of Interest to Readers of Sucker State.

News of All Kinds Gathered From Various Points in the State and So Reduced in Size That It Will Appeal to All Classes of Readers.

Jeremiah Sullivan of Shelbyville, the oldest man in the state, celebrated his 102d birthday.

A. C. Hazard, Moline, entered an undertaker's morgue and committed suicide by shooting himself.

John Rolando, a Johnson City eccentric, bought an automobile and paid for it with buffalo nickels.

Despondent while visiting at Galesburg over his wife's death, O. Erlandson, wealthy Woodhull, Ill., farmer, ended his life by poison.

L. Jacobson put in his spare time at clamming in Fox river. Recently he found a pearl weighing twenty-one grains and worth upward of $500.

Joe Hammill, a Dixon mechanic, was instantly killed when his racing car, going sixty miles an hour, struck a taxi owned by Harry Courtwright.

Savanna ice employes struck for an increase in wages from $12 per week to $15. The company granted the demands and then advanced the price of ice 25 per cent.

Jacob Herz of Chicago, who was employed by a Galesburg electric light company, fell 175 feet from the top of a stack which the company is building and was killed.

Emil Handquist, living at Rockford, went on a Good Templar river excursion. Next day his body was found floating down-stream. A is supposed he fell from the boat.

As his fiancée looked on Wm. Taylor of Beckemeyer, Ill., fell into White's Ford, a mile south of Carlyle, and was drowned. He was to have been married in August.

William and Edgar O. Whittaker, brothers, living at Greenview, were united in marriage on the same day to Mabel E. and Elva M. Jett, respectively. The brides are sisters.

When members of his parish living at Blaine found it difficult to secure help with the harvest, Rev. William Groves, pastor of the local church, donned overalls and helped gather the hay and grain.

Miss Eva Benefield whose home was at Jacksonville, Ill., Kankakee county adviser for the Women's Home Improvement association, and Miss Marie Carpenter of Stockton, Ill., were drowned at Harnett's pony farm near Kankakee.

Quincy police are mystified by the death of Michael Gurn, sixty-seven years old, a hermit fisherman, who was found dead in his cabin with a bullet hole in his head. Every indication was that he was murdered.

Cleo Clodfelter, a sixteen year old lad of Weldon, was drowned when he pitched head-first to the bottom of a fifty-foot well which he was helping clean. He was being lowered in a bucket when overcome by fumes.

Four miners were instantly killed at Pana and two workmen severely injured in a gas explosion in Springfield mine. The dead are John Coleman, thirty-three; John Traskoski, nineteen; Marcel Cosart, twenty-two; Alexander Sanderock, twenty-five.

A man and his wife were instantly killed and their two small children fatally injured when their automobile was struck by a Chicago and Alton railroad train north of Springfield. The couple's name is Watson and they resided in Riverton, Ill.

Edward Westhaven, a tinner living at Greenville, Ill., was electrocuted in the basement of his house while repairing an automobile. Westhaven while lying on a damp cement floor underneath the auto, took hold of a live feeding light. Part of the insulation had become worn off.

Mrs. Francis DeOrnellas, a Jacksonville, Ill., pioneer, who never was sick a day in her life until last week, died July 30 at the age of 106 years. She was born in Madeira islands in May, 1810, and came to Jacksonville with a band of Presbyterians to escape religious persecution.

James A. Smith died at Chatsworth. At one time he was one of the best known Democratic politicians of Illinois, being a member of the Thirty-sixth general assembly from that district, and one of the famous 101 Palmer men. For thirty-four years he was publisher of the Chatsworth Plain Dealer and for four years was mayor of the city.

Infantile paralysis in the vicinity of Cherry, Decatur and East St. Louis resulted in the issuing of an order by Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, secretary of the state board of health, that any persons accompanied by children must immediately report to the health authorities at their destination, in order that the children may be watched.

J. V. Winter, rich Collinsville farmer, in Southeastern Illinois, shot and killed his wife and then turned the gun on himself and inflicted wounds which caused his death. Neighbors, who heard the first shots, rushed into the house and found the woman dead and Winter only slightly wounded. He was revived, but succeeded in crawling into another room, where he again shot himself.

The western section of the Northern Teachers' association will convene at Dixon Oct. 26-28.

The three-year-old child of Arthur Young, living at Carlyle, died of infantile paralysis, after a week's illness.

Boone county "Snowbirds" and their friends gathered at Hononegah park for the annual old settlers' picnic.

Green scum covering Peoria lake has stopped bathing at a hundred cottages. The scum is so thick that it interferes seriously with canoe paddling.

William C. Danring, aged 45, died from injuries which he received February 17 while drilling for oil in Plum Hill township, Washington county.

Charges by Dr. Hasliden, Chicago, of mismanagement against the Illinois State school will be refuted in the report of the committee which has been investigating the charges.

Members of the Illinois Horticultural society met in annual summer session, guests of A. L. McClay, at the McClay 1,000-acre orchard, and discussed farm tractors and spraying.

The daughter of Stephen Jennett, two miles south of Carlyle, died of infantile paralysis, after a week's illness. This is the second death from the plague there. There are no new cases.

Ed. Meeney was drowned near Romo. His clothes were found on the shore and search resulted in the recovery of his body. This was the sixth drowning of the season in Will county.

C. C. Morrison of Decatur was killed on the road near Pana and four persons were badly hurt when an automobile in which they were riding got beyond control and crashed into a fence pole.

Wilbur B. Bagley, musician at a Danville theater, ended an endurance piano-playing stunt of fifty hours and five minutes. He claims this beats the world's record of forty-five hours and thirty minutes, made at Clinton, Ill., in 1914.

Ground has already been broken at Quincy for the new plant to manufacture the raw materials used in the production of dyes. Five buildings are being constructed. But one other plant in the country is producing raw dye material.

Myron Stephens, a farmer of Jackson county, has found a large pearl which is said to be worth several hundred dollars. Stephens was digging in Beaucrope Creek for mussel shells and got the pearl, which is as large as the end of a finger.

Stealing a march on their waiting friends at Nashville Walter Ankershell, mail clerk on the Illinois Southern, and Miss Clara Wehking, a sister-in-law of Mayor H. L. Krughof, were married at the home of the mayor by Rev. H. O. Hiser.

Mr. and Mrs. George Locey, pioneers of Clinton county, held their golden wedding anniversary at their home in Carlyle. They were both born at "The Ridge" farm, miles south of Carlyle. Their parents were early pioneer settlers. Mr. Locey is a veteran of the civil war.

Lieut. E. L. Canady of the aviation section signal corps, U. S. army, and Miss Carrie Baxter were married at Corregidor, P. I., the present station of the groom. Lieutenant Canady is a son of Rev. T. G. Canady, who was for several years pastor of the Carlisle Methodist church.

While she was riding toward home in an automobile with her husband at midnight, Mrs. Murial Young, the bride of James C. Young of State Line, became unconscious north of Danville and died early in the morning. It was her twenty-first birthday.

Jersey county held the biggest "home coming" and anniversary celebration in their history. It was Saturday, Aug. 5, under the auspices of the Jersey County Historical society. Speakers, included J. M. Page, representing the Illinois state centennial commission, and former Congressman Ben F. Caldwell of Chatham.

Mrs. Lucy J. Swofford killed J. Q. Roberts, to whom she had been illegally married, at West Frankfort, 7 miles south of Benton, in view of Constable Elza Wickson of Benton and George A. Hickman, an attorney, who were accompanying Roberts to elect her from Roberts' home.

Coroner's jurys investigating the mine explosion at Pana, which resulted in the death of four miners, at the Smith Lohr Coal company shaft, returned verdicts recommending that Coal Mine Operators Ben Beckenheimer and R. G. Lohr, and Superintendent William Berryman and Mine Examiner James Kelly be held to grand jury.

Imbedded in a wall of a cellhouse were found nine sticks of dynamite, connected by wire with an electric fixture in the cell of Clyde Stratton. One of three convicts who escaped Joliet prison. It is thought Stratton and his coplotters expected to blow down the walls, hoping in the confusion to get away, if their simple and successful plan of opening the cell doors and boring a hole through the roof had proved abortive.

Non-union men, said to have been armed with guns ordered all union men to leave Hardin county, where a strike is in progress at the Rosiclare lead mines, according to a telegram received by Governor Dunne from the mayor of Rosiclare. Governor Dunne immediately dispatched Colonel Richings J. Shand, assistant adjutant general, and James F. Morris, secretary of the state mining board, to Rosiclare to investigate.

READY-TO-WEAR SUITS

I have a few Tailor made ready-to-wear suits which I will guarantee to fit and will sell at a very low price.

I also do cleaning, pressing and repairing at the very lowest figure and guarantee all workmanship to be first class. Work called for and delivered.

M. LEVIN
Telephone 372
10 North Second Street

DR. WATSON DENTIST

45 St. Johns Ave. Highland Park
Telephone 37

Swift's Commercial Fertilizers FOR SALE BY Frank Kottrach

Deerfield, Illinois

TELEPHONE 956

JOHN BEACH

LANDSCAPE GARDENER
Work of any kind by day or Contract. Care of Furnaces
437 Deerfield Ave.

C. M. GATES PAINTING

Paper Hanging and Decorating
Telephone 1098
244 E. Park Avenue HIGHLAND PARK

Dr. B. A. Hamilton Dr. Earl D. Fritsch DENTISTS

Suite 4, 5 and 6, State Bank Bldg.
Telephone 678 HIGHLAND PARK, ILL.

Arthur C. Lang

Phone Highland Park 372
Highland Park Home Service Co.
We do General House Cleaning, Lawn Mowing and all work about the house. Honest and reliable service.

Telephone 909

J. P. STEFFEN

Fresh Butter, Eggs and Poultry
331 McDaniel Avenue
HIGHLAND PARK, ILL.

J. Smith

Pays the Highest Cash Prices
Wholesale and Retail Dealer for
Iron Rags Metal Rubber Bottles Paper, etc.

Automobile Tires, Metals & Rubbers A SPECIALTY

Drop me a postal card or telephone me and I will call for goods

Telephone 410
60 North First St.
Highland Park

EXPRESS AND BAGGAGE

Freight Transfer Prompt Service
J. A. McCLOY
Tel. 966 121 St. John's Ave., Highland Park, Ill.

Estimates gladly furnished
Phone Residence 822-M

No Job too small to be appreciated
None too large to execute

Andrew G. Erickson

Carpenter Contractor and Builder
Jobbing a Specialty

Shop 432 West Central Avenue
Highland Park, Illinois

Safe Good Milk is a Blessing

What brings greater peace of mind than to know that the children's and household supply of milk is safe—certified so—; and good, certified as to its richness? Nothing—

Such Milk is

Kieckhefer's Certified Milk

Produced out in a garden spot of country right on the edge of Pewaukee Lake, bottled there and brought here thoroughly cool, clean and pure you can have such milk on your breakfast table and all day tomorrow and every day.

Telephone the distributors

Bowman Dairy Company

101-109 Vine Avenue
Telephones Highland Park 9 Glencoe 70

Vudor Sleeping Porch

Vudor Porch Shades are perfect for this purpose.

Every Shade Equipped with Vudor Safety Wind Device

ESTABLISHED 1874
D. C. PURDY & SONS
INCORPORATED

WHY NOT SELL YOUR OLD GOLD, JEWELRY, SILVER & ANTIQUES TO
FRANK S. BOYDEN
1312-1313 Broadway Building
25 East Madison Street CHICAGO
We manufacture jewelry of all kinds, also hand wrought silver. We specialize in designing and making of Diamond Jewelry.

Butter, Eggs, and Home Dressed Poultry

Lake Shore Creamery

F. A. TUCKER, Proprietor
515 Oakwood Ave.
Tel. 57 Highland Park, Ill.