The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Campbell Chapter Guild will meet with Mrs. Fred Moon of North Second Street on Friday, September eighth.

A very attractive affair was that given on Saturday by Miss Charlotte Robertson and her father Lionel Robertson, at their home on St. John's Place. Swimming was to have formed part of the afternoon entertainment, but the weather was too cold to permit it. Supper was served on the lawn from little tables on the lawn which was decorated with Japanese lanterns. In the evening Mrs. Lou Wall Moore with several other members of the Player's Workshop, presented two alfresco plays, one being the Happy Prince. Miss Charlotte of the Chicago Grand Opera Company displayed some very clever ballet dancing after the plays.

Mrs. John D. McDougall was hostess at a delightful porch luncheon on Tuesday to twelve out-of-town guests. Table and house decorations were of all colored petunias.

The Euchre Club met last evening with Mrs. Henry Clow of South Second St.

The Girls' Friendly Society of Grace Church, Chicago, enjoyed their annual picnic at Ravinia Park on Saturday. Seventy-two young women and children of the society enjoyed the afternoon concert and opera in the evening. At seven o'clock there was an entertainment in the ball room above the Casino with Miss Laura Kennedy, Mr. Elgdenfrits, and Miss Anna Morgan on the program. The party returned to Chicago on the eleven fifty-one train with boxes of flowers which were presented to them by Mr. Leay.

Among those in the boxes in the pavilion Monday evening at Ravinia Park, were, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett, Mr. Francis Everett, Miss Mary French, Mrs. Thomas Voss of Wichita, Kansas, a guest of Mrs. Everett, and Chisolm Stubbs. The dancing was exceptionally attractive on Monday evening. Miss Galli and Sig. Bonfiglio appeared in a number of new dances which were very pleasing and greatly enjoyed. The concert preceding the intermission was a very beautiful one. It was a program of ball room music, and the selections were charming. Indeed, many thanks ought to be forthcoming for the generosity of the conductors on this occasion, and others in the way of "extras," encores, and "requests." Informality reigns in the black and white Casino, though a great number of people eat there, there are few dinner parties. It seems as if people enjoy simple luncheons and teas. Recently, however, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Marshall, and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Marzio of Lake Forest have entertained friends at dinner. Last evening three hundred and fifty members of the Chicago Transportation Club motored out to Ravinia and dined at the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. William Arnswald of W. Laurel Ave., were host and hostess at supper Sunday evening, celebrating Mr. Arnswald's birthday anniversary. Sixteen guests sat down to supper.

The Worth White Circle met with the Misses Muench on Monday evening.

Among those entertaining at dinner on Saturday evening at the regular dinner-dance at Exmoor were, Mrs. W. S. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Swigart, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clements, Mr. W. C. Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wrenn, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Younglove, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Mitchell, and the Misses Helen Warner, Alleen Kelley, Hanson and Merriman. On Monday evening there will be a Labor Day dinner-dance.

It seems like June. Not that the weather man is blessing us with any June-like weather right now (though he has been), but Dan Cupid's appearances recently has made the time seem like June, the month of brides. On Saturday afternoon occurred the wedding of Miss Dorothy Bastin, daughter of Mrs. Abbe Bastin, to Wilbur Edmond Brotherton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur E. Brotherton of Detroit, Mich., at the home of the bride's mother, 547 St. Johns avenue, at 4 o'clock. Rev. Cornell, pastor of the Union Church in Glenview read the Henry Van Dyke marriage service, in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few friends. The house was decorated with oak boughs, hydrangeas, and a beautiful array of garden flowers. After the ceremony the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Marquette, Mich., and will be at home after October 1st, at Ann Arbor, Mich. Another very pretty wedding was that of Miss May Kreuger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Kreuger and Mr. Walter E. Melerhoff, son of Mr. Fred Melerhoff, which took place at the home of the bride's parents Saturday afternoon at five o'clock with Rev. Unangst officiating. The bride was gowned in white charmeuse and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The attendants were Miss Anna Kreuger and Mr. Arthur Melerhoff. Little Walter Melerhoff and Florence Glader were flower children. Only the immediate relatives were present. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Melerhoff will be at home at 445 Glencoe avenue, after October 1st. On Saturday evening occurs the marriage of Miss Grace Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson of Irving Park to Mr. Henry Kello Code, Jr., son of Mr. Henry K. Coale of this city. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents, 1449 Keystone avenue, Chicago.

Friends of Mr. Moritz Boehm and Miss Boehm enjoyed swimming in the large Greedan pool on the Boehm estate, Saturday afternoon. A number of expert swimmers, both children and adults were present who gave exhibitions of diving and different kinds of swimming. After the exhibition the guests wandered over the beautiful grounds until the host and hostess bade them a cordial welcome to have coffee and sandwiches in the residence on the back of the estate. On Sunday morning there was more swimming exhibitions.
