MME. AUGETTE FORET, Soprano Chansonniere

Who will give a Costume Recital of Old French, English and Japanese Songs in the Ballroom at the Moraine Hotel, Monday Evening September 11 at 8:45

Mme. Foret, who has charmed audiences in England, France, New York, Pacific Coast, Honolulu, Japan and China and who is now en route to New York to commence her season, will give one of her individual and artistic programs in the ballroom of the Moraine Hotel on Monday evening, September 11th.

Mme. Foret has just returned from Japan, where she made a study of the songs of the country and sings them in the vernacular. Through the courtesy of Viscount Kentaro Kaneko, H. I. Majesty's privy councillor, Mme. Foret was given the privilege of visiting the Academy of Music in Tokyo, where they have made wonderful progress with our Western scale, which is so totally different from their own, and when one considers that their natural tone production is a struggle between the nose and the throat it was a most interesting experience. It was this very fact that emboldened Mme. Foret to attempt their method of singing, which is diametrically opposed to our method of tone production.

Mme. Foret, through her distinguished Japanese friends was enabled to secure the ceremonial gown of a lady of high degree, her wig was made especially for her by the wig maker of the Imperial Theatre in Tokyo. This she will wear at her recital Monday at the Moraine Hotel.

HIGHLAND PARK TRIM LAKE FOREST 5 TO 4

FIVE RUNS MADE IN FIRST INNING

Second Game of a Series of Three to be Played at West Central Avenue Highland Park Next Sunday. Be Present

By West Side Fan

Now that the hot weather is over baseball is again taking its place in the hearts of the fans. Those who went with the home team to Lake Forest Sunday saw about everything that goes to make up a real ball game. The home ball team took the measure of the fast Lake Forest team by the slight margin of 5 to 4, this being the first time Lake Forest went down to defeat on their home ground this season. The second game of the series of three with Lake Forest will be played on the home grounds at Central Park Sunday, Sept. 10. This promises to be some ball game, as Lake Forest is coming down about 200 strong seeking revenge for the defeat handed them last Sunday.

The home team have won from Libertyville, Wells-Fargo and Lake Forest in their last three starts. In fact they have only lost three games this year. So all you fans that want to see a hotly contested ball game come down to Central Park next Sunday and help drown out the rooting the 200 fans from Lake Forest are coming down to do.

ARDEN SHORE CLOSES SEASON

Most Successful Year. Many Improvements and Largest Number of Guests

Arden Shore, the restful out-of-door camp on the North Shore, to which many people come from the crowded city to enjoy outings in the country, closed its most successful season on Friday. There were four hundred more guests at camp this year than during any other season. Owing to the extensive improvements and the extra guests at camp during the summer, it is very necessary that all benefit entertainments given for Arden Shore in the near future be well patronized.

An Explanation.

On account of the excessive heat during the past summer the usual local benefits for the fresh air camp were postponed until September.

It has been the custom to send tickets for a benefit in a neighboring town only to members of the board and to the interested friends. On account of the exceptionally fine performance offered at the Winnetka benefit last evening, which was sure to draw a crowd, the Highland Park committee decided beforehand to send out about 50 tickets to this town. Through an oversight in the office in Chicago, where they were addressed, all of the local subscribers were sent to, and in many of the envelopes four tickets were enclosed, which was too large a demand. The committee feels that this explanation is necessary so that our own benefit which will be announced shortly, will not suffer thereby. Please don't forget we support a winter as well as a summer work. The success of last year was due to our ever generous friends. Signed, Highland Park Committee.

BARBER SHOPS TO CLOSE SUNDAYS

It was further agreed to close at eight o'clock p. m. except Saturdays. These rules take effect next Saturday, September 9th.

Every loyal Ravinia Park enthusiast should be on hand at the park that night and give the necessary vim to the occasion, this frolic which winds up the entire season at Ravinia.

OPERA SEASON CLOSED

"Sold Out" was the watchword at the box office at Ravinia on Monday evening, when the farwell was sung and played to the 1916 season. A gala program greeted the pavilion crowded with people and the hundreds outside. The first part of the evening Faust was sung, showing only the prison scene, with Marguerite Beria, Orville Harold and Henri Scott, Ernst Knoch, conducting. After intermission Mr. Henri Scott sang Wagner's Pogner's Address from Die Meistersinger, and Song to the Evening Star from Tannhauser. Sig. Millo Pizzo sang Largo al factotum from Barber of Seville, in costume, which was charming and done with ease and grace. Mlle. Rosina Galli and Sig. Giuseppe Bonfiglio appeared in classic and character dances, which were very beautiful and created much enthusiasm. These dancers are the only dancers who have ever remained at Ravinia during the entire season, and no wonder, their art is perfect, they never fail to charm. There is that in every dance which one is so pleased to see again.

MUNRO SHOWS BIG GAIN AS CAMPAIGN CLOSES

SAYS WATERLOO OF BOSSES IS AT HAND

Result of Mr. Munro's Work in the Fergus Cases is a Saving of About $500,000 Annually to the People of Illinois

Closing one of the most picturesque campaigns ever made in Illinois, Fayette Munro, of this city, candidate for the Republican nomination for Attorney General, has been telling thousands of voters in Central and Northern Illinois this week that the Waterloo of the bosses and machines is at hand. Mr. Munro, in response, is receiving letters, telegrams and verbal assurances from every corner of the state demonstrating that independent Republicans are alert and will give him the nomination for Attorney General next Wednesday with votes to spare.

Mr. Munro has been emphasizing the "slush fund" features of the present Illinois primary canvass. Having charged that the various candidates for office will spend at least $2,500,000 before primary election day, Mr. Munro also has accused his rivals for the office of Attorney General of expending at least $800,000.

Mr. Munro, being unwilling to accept contributions from the public service corporations which later may want favor from the Attorney General, has had a limited campaign fund, furnished entirely by personal intimates. He has filed "with the public" a list of expenditures, aggregating up to September 4, $2,500. This outlay, however, included an item of $700 for his book, "Legislative Spendthrifts," which was planned before he entered the political race.

Mr. Munro is the lawyer in the famous Fergus suits who served the taxpayers of the state for almost a year without compensation.

Through Mr. Munro's efforts, illegal and imprudent appropriations of the legislature at Springfield to the extent of $1,000,000 were held back.

On the theory that they were unconstitutional, Mr. Munro started suit in various instances and obtained several favorable decisions from the Supreme Court of Illinois.

The net result of these decisions and of Mr. Munro's work in the Fergus cases is a saving of about $500,000 annually to the people of Illinois.

He promises that if elected Attorney General he will continue the work, wherever possible, so ably conducted in connection with the Fergus law suits.

He promises to make the office of Attorney General an instrument for remedying bad conditions at Springfield.

Mr. Munro was a member of the legislature in 1913 and was always found on the side of the men and women who needed help. For instance, he supported all of the bills favoring shorter working hours for women, one day's rest in seven for laboring men and women, the initiative and referendum, and similar measures. He is known as one of the strongest trial lawyers in Illinois. He is in the prime of life, is married, and has four fine boys.

Mr. Munro's recently-issued book, "Legislative Spendthrifts" in which he covers much of his work and achievements in the Fergus suits, has attracted widespread attention.

DANCING CLASSES TO OPEN

Doris Humphrey Returns to Highland Park to Instruct Adults' and Children's Dances

Miss Doris Humphrey was in town last week arranging for dancing classes, which will open in October. Miss Humphrey's successful work in teaching and pageantry is well known on the North Shore, and it will be a source of gratification to many that she is to hold classes for young people and children, as well as adults during the coming season in Highland Park.

A graduate and instructor in the Hinman Normal School, instructor at Roycemore, in Evanston, and the Leofhourrow School of Oak Park, Miss Humphrey has had unusual success with children and particularly with the very little ones she has developed a unique method which accomplishes wonders.

Her children's entertainments both in Highland Park and Ravinia Park in the past two seasons will be remembered for their charming originality. All her work shows an artistic quality which removes it from the ordinary. Later announcement will be made of the time and place of classes.

HIGHLAND PARK HAS A NEW CORPORATION

MR. CHARLES H. WARREN RETIRES

Warren-Meyer Co. Successors to Chas. H. Warren & Co. With E. A. Meyer as President and W. A. Hubel as Secretary and Treasurer

Our readers may be surprised to learn that we have a new corporation in Highland Park. Mr. Charles H. Warren has retired from active business life and Chas. H. Warren & Co., has reorganized as the Warren-Meyer Company, with E. A. Meyer, whom we all know as president, and W. A. Hubel, formerly of Chicago, as secretary and treasurer.

The new management is endeavoring to systematize the business and give the people a thoroughly efficient and well equipped merchandising establishment. They promise many changes during the next year in the way of making the store an up-to-date department store.

Mr. Meyer, who has spent practically all of his life in the dry goods business, and who has been connected with Chas. H. Warren & Co., as a partner of Mr. Warren for the past year, feels greatly encouraged in his efforts to make the business a growing success on account of the appreciation shown by the public in the way of increased patronage. He will as heretofore, continue to have charge of the merchandising, while his co-worker, Mr. Hubel, will act as general superintendent of the corporation's affairs. The latter's experience with large corporations in Chicago and in the west well qualifies him for this position.
