Lake County's Only Candidate

H. B. EGER

LIBERTYVILLE

Republican Candidate State Representative

He is a successful business man.
He has been Mayor of his city, Supervisor of the Town of Libertyville for eight years; Chairman of the Board of Supervisors in 1915, and President of the Illinois Association of County Clerks, Supervisors and Commissioners in 1915. He is reliable, fearless and in favor of economy in government and an advocate of Good Roads. The expense of government at Springfield has more than doubled in the last few years. A little economy and efficiency, if put on the roads, would soon build the best system of roads in the County.

McHenry County having a much smaller vote than Lake County have had both of the Republican representatives for years. If the voters of Lake County would unite and cast their vote for Henry B. Eger, the only Republican Candidate for representative of Lake County it would assure a Republican representative for this County.

OLSON'S RECORD

The early political career of the present Senator was limited to Chicago. As the pawn of the Market Street gang, he was elected to several terms in the Chicago City Council, despite the increasing protest of the Municipal Voters' League of that city.

Being finally repudiated in his own ward, he moved to Woodstock with sufficient money to start in business in that city.

Political office he has always sought. Lavish expenditures of money for that purpose will always gain supporters of a certain class.

For eight years, he has been the Senator from this district. At each election he has been unable to point to his own record but by vilification and abuse has sought to eliminate his opponent at the start.

He is pursuing those tactics now.

The last session of the senate has been a disgrace to Illinois. Sworn evidence, taken on the hearing of the Fergus Bill, has disclosed a condition of affairs which should not be tolerated by good citizens.

The Senate Chamber is one hundred by two hundred feet; in it are seated fifty-one Senators.

Twelve janitors were hired to keep it clean.

Twenty-four pages were employed to run errands between desk and desk. These pages are the sons of political henchmen, and they draw the salaries of high priced executives.

A man was armed with a long pole and a longer salary and made Superintendent of Ventilation.

The private janitor of Mr. O'Hara, the Lieutenant Governor, received twenty-two hundred and sixty-five dollars for six months' work. The law allows the senate sixty helpers; one hundred and twenty were employed; two janitors, who actually performed services never saw the others at their fictitious tasks.

The law provides that a Senator shall receive for his services two thousand dollars, two cents a mile for one trip each way, and fifty dollars for incidental expenses. The Constitution says no further allowance shall be made. To increase this allowance a mileage bill was passed allowing each Senator an amount equal to twenty-one trips at two cents a mile, a mere matter of twenty-six thousand dollars. Mr. Lee O'Neil Brown remarked in this connection that since they were about to vote an amount to compensate the farmers for losses, they should not forget themselves; in fact, "That Charity should begin at home."

As another means of increasing revenue visiting committees were created. Special trains with Pullmans attached were hired and the committee, and their friends and relatives, numbering fifty-one in all, went joy riding on the state, at the expense of eleven thousand dollars—the law allows but seven members to be taken.

One trip of eight and one-half days cost five thousand two hundred and seventy-three dollars. Twenty-six standing committees were appointed and numerous special committees, including one at whose head sat our local Senator, who went into a one day solemn session to determine the "physiological effect of corn flour upon the human body," and to determine what the minimum wage might be if people were willing to accept it; for this immortal service, Mr. Olson was paid the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars.

The versatile Mr. O'Hara received an inspiration. It would be a matter of high interest, instruction and excellent publicity, to organize a committee to determine "Why is Vice?" The State of Illinois is all agog to express its gratitude. At the expense of ten thousand dollars, Mr. O'Hara can now report that vice exists and that it is practiced solely by the immoral and vicious.

In relating these matters I am only scratching at the lid.

These expenditures have been made possible and have been authorized by a majority of the Senators.

In their midst sits A. J. Olson—always concurring, never disagreeing. Never once has he stood up in that body and as a true representative of the people, who elected him, pointed the finger of accusation at his fellow gangsters and denounced them for their profligacy and inefficiency.

Olson has lacked the courage; he has lacked an appreciation of his duty; he has shown an ignorance of what a trusteeship means; his sole interest has been to curry favor with the leaders; that he may feed the peanut politicians on whom he relies for future political existence.

He has advanced no constructive legislation.

If the people of this district want constructive laws—if the people demand that the expense of government be decreased—if the people of this district are interested in seeing their hard earned funds treated as a trust and not as a hog trough—they will on September 13th eliminate from political life A. J. Olson and all others of his type.

The farmers of this district are giving their support to Swift; they have a full realization of what they have suffered from the buffalo statesmanship of Olson.

Swift is a Lake County man; his record is open; he has not attacked the private life of his opponent; he has limited himself to the record of the present Senator.

A LAKE COUNTY MAN FOR STATE SENATOR.
