High School Notes

High School has been in session since September 5. The enrollment September 11th was approximately 400. This number is only approximate for there are many who have not returned from vacation. There are seven new members of the faculty: Miss Griswold succeeded Miss F. L. Stuart; Miss Southwick, Miss McElrath; Miss Ames; Miss Tucker; Mr. Fraser; Mr. Morgan; Mr. Ball; Mr. Cragoe; Dr. Newhall, Mr. White. Mr. Rothacher has an assistant, Mr. Corsant.

A new course in music has been added: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday classes in Harmony, in History of Music, and in Musical appreciation meet with Mr. Fraser in the English Club Room. Much interest is being shown in this work.

This year the schedule has been re-arranged so that Military Training, First Aid, Glee Club, and Orchestra are a part of the day's program, instead of after school. This period from 12:07 to 12:41 is called the fifth.

Student government still prevails in the high school. The school elected twenty-eight councillors—sixteen boys and twelve girls—last week and the councillors chose Paul Carlson, Lake Forest, as their chief. During the entire day the halls are in charge of student councillors whose duty it is to see that no one passes thru the halls without permission.

Great interest is being manifested in athletics. All students are required to have four years of gymnasium. This year there are no after school swimming classes; all taking swimming must report to regular classes. Football practice has opened favorably with nine of last year's team back and with Leland Smith, Lake Forest, as captain.

Exmoor Club Notes

Semi-finals and finals were played Saturday for the club championship for the cup presented by the president, H. F. Carr. The cup is of silver, lined with gold and resembles the Queen Nine style. It stands one foot in height, has two handles and is of a very pretty, simple design. The semi-finals were played by Walter Egan, who beat R. L. Eldridge by 2 up; L. S. Gordon, who beat Bradshaw Egan by 2 up. The final was won by Walter Egan who beat L. G. Gordon by 4 up and 3 to play. Having won the finals Mr. Egan has the honor of winning the R. F. Carr.

An 18-hole match play against par for four prizes was played in the afternoon. Classes A, B, C and D were entered. Class A was won by Herman Thomas by 1 up; R. C. Viles, 1 down; R. E. Smith, 1 down. Class B—J. L. Martin, even up; A. A. Clements, 1 down; O. W. Johnson, 1 down. Class C—A. B. Shuttler, 2 up; E. H. de Bronkhart, 1 down. Class D—N. B. McClain, 1 down; J. P. Smith, 2 down. September 18th, 19th and 20th have been reserved for ladies golf tournament days.
