

The Strain of Housecleaning

is due largely to the labor necessary to refresh your rugs, carpets and draperies. Perhaps last year you tried vacuum cleaning but this also proved unsatisfactory for it only removed the dust.

Why not solve the problem easily and economically by sending your floor coverings and draperies to the house of service where they will be thoroughly cleaned—not merely dusted—at a very reasonable charge.

Parent-Teachers' Association

The first fall meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association met in the school assembly hall Friday afternoon, Sept. 15. After the committee on school grounds improvement reported, Mr. Reichelt, Jr., then spoke on the proposed release of bonds for the purpose of putting toilets in the school house and of improving the school grounds. A motion was carried for the association to drop the work on grounds and sidewalks. Thirty-eight dollars was voted for the purpose of buying school supplies. The Lyceum bureau course of concerts and entertainments was informally discussed. The first concert is to be given by the Genevieve Smith Co. on Oct. 20. Miss Smith is a skilled and experienced harpist. Miss Norton accompanies her as a reader of marvelous scope. Many of her selections are in costumes and with harp accompaniment. Season tickets for the five concerts are $1.50, children's 75 cents. They may be purchased from Mrs. Stryker, Mrs. Beecham, Miss Woodman, Mrs. Hagl. Single admission will be 50 cents. The following committees for the year were appointed:

Program, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Otto Knank, Miss Davies. Social, Mrs. Stryker, Mrs. Wolf, Miss Ender. Custodian, Miss Glyne. Finance, Mrs. Hagl, Mr. Nelson. Publicity, Mrs. Jordan, Miss Kent. Supplies, Mrs. Reichelt, Sr., Miss Woodman.

A committee to organize a dancing class for adults and children, if such classes are wished, was appointed consisting of Mrs. Reichelt, Jr., Mrs. E. Ender and Miss Galloway. Mr. Nelson asked that those who see good moving picture dramas give him the names. This will materially assist him in selecting reels for the winter shows. The vice-president, Mrs. Hagl, appointed Mrs. Jarvis and Mrs. Otto Knank as the hostesses for next month.

Deerfield Grammar School

Saturday afternoon, September 20, at the town hall, a vote will be taken on a bond issue for the completion of the Deerfield grammar school. Among the improvements to be made are indoor toilets and cement walks around the building. The bonds will start to mature in ten years.

Solving that Underwear Problem Once for All

If you were a scientist—if you spent many months in an exhaustive investigation of underwear fabrics, styles of garments, methods of making—
You would merely come in the end to the same opinion already held by everyone who has once worn them—
That by every test, and from every point of view, the supreme underwear is

As to Soup

It is estimated that there are about 300 different kinds or varieties. They make an economical and nutritious dish. Some prefer the shin bone for soups, as it contains the marrow and adds strength and thickness. Others prefer a cut from the neck.
