

The Strain of Housecleaning

is due largely to the labor necessary to refresh your rugs, carpets and draperies. Perhaps last year you tried vacuum cleaning but this also proved unsatisfactory for it only removed the dust.

Why not solve the problem easily and economically by sending your floor coverings and draperies to the house of service where they will be thoroughly cleaned—not merely dusted—at a very reasonable charge.

United Evangelical Church

On Sunday evening, Sept. 14th, the Mission Band and Keystone League of Christian Endeavor held a joint meeting at the United Evangelical church. The opening exercises were in charge of Mrs. J. A. Stryker, the leader of the Mission Band. The latter society is studying a very interesting book on home missions, "All Along the Trail." Winifred Plagge told the story of the third chapter, "The Shadowed Trail," which emphasizes missionary and educational work among the colored people of the South. Stories of the Trail were told by Florence Goodmae, Vida Plagge, Myrtle Clapper, Lillian Antos, and Vera Plagge. A duet by Laurel and Miriam Stryker, "The World Children for Jesus," followed the lesson study. Mrs. Goodmae read a very interesting leaflet entitled "Little Brown Brother." This was followed by a duet by Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Milton Frantz. The last number on the program was a well interpreted reading, "Is it my Duty?" by Laurel Stryker. The meeting was well attended and was enjoyed by all present. An offering for missionary purposes was taken. Although a joint meeting of this kind is unusual, it proved to be very successful.

The business meeting of the K. L. C. E. was held at the home of Gladys Goodman Friday evening following a profitable business session, a delightful social time was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Goodman assisted by her mother, Mrs. Olson of Blue Island.

The special services at the United Evangelical Church will begin next Sunday the 1st of October. Rev. E. K. Yeakel, presiding elder, will have charge of the beginning of the week and C. G. Unaugst the latter part. A hearty invitation is extended to all.

Presbyterian Church

Thursday afternoon Mesdames Hole and Gardner were hostesses at the September meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society. A responsive service, "The Living Christ," opened the program on the subject "Africa." Mrs. Bert Easton read brief accounts
