Deerfield Presbyterian Church

Rev. Orsborn's Sunday morning sermon on the Blackest Page in Modern History, was the story of bleeding Armenia, the citizens inoffensive and unarmed, without food and shelter, driven from their house and butchered relentlessly. To America in days of peace and freedom to worship God has come the cry for help.

The Clover Circle will meet in the Church Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Grammar School.

On Monday evening, October 30th, there will be a debate in the school assembly hall. The question is "Wilson or Hughes." It will be discussed by ten pupils from the seventh and eighth grades. It is simply a recitation of the issues as seen by either party.

As a lesson in "Civics", election proceedings will be carried out. There will be two election boards, one for the women at the stairs of the main entrance and one for the men at the west entrance.

A straw vote will be taken. The ballots will bear the names of the presidential candidates only. In order to facilitate matters you are asked to tear off the name of the candidate you favor and deposit it in the ballot box.

All are invited to attend in the spirit of an entertainment and there will be no admission fee.

For Wilson: Theresa Klemp, Jack Kress, Eva Ender, Willard Goldring, Kenneth Jarvis.

For Hughes: Leslie Haggie, Carl Knigge, Owen Savage, Virgil Selig, Myrtle Schille.

Chairman, Raymond Dobbins.

November 7th being election day a word or two in regard to the registration will be in order. There seems to be some misunderstanding as to the duties of registration. There is a vast difference in the methods of registration in Chicago and the smaller villages and cities. In Chicago the poll books are thrown away or burned every two years and absolutely new ones are made. This is in accordance with a ruling of election commission, which adopted that method of preventing several thousand dead people from remaining on the list as live voters, and being voted as live ones by unscrupulous ward heelers and their gangs of repeaters. In Deerfield the poll books are not thrown away. The books which will be used at the coming election contain the names of the people who voted at the primary and also at the local option election last spring. They are copied in the new poll books from the old ones by judges of election who usually spend most of their time on the first registration day performing this duty.

The composite ability of the Maude Stevens company heard at the school Assembly Hall on last Friday evening reaches a high level. It was elocution and playing of a fine inspiring order.

Those who were present heard one hour and fifty minutes of charming numbers. Each number was given in a distinct and brilliant manner. It was a lovely performance by a talented company and showed a considerable amount of good training. It is regretted that the attendance was not up to the standard, as this being the initial performance. The concert was repeated at Shermerville Saturday evening before an audience of 100.
