

"I won't save my money for somebody else to spend, I am going to live while the living is good".

When you listen to such philosophy, your heart goes out in pity for the foolish man who expounds it.

The philosophy of the sensible man is to live well but to provide also for a competency by saving a fixed amount and depositing the same where it is safe and productive. We have the glad hand for the sensible man.

Y. W. C. A. News

Miss Jessie Field of New York City, one of the National Secretaries of the Y. W. C. A., was a Tuesday afternoon guest at the Association Headquarters. Her work is mainly among the girls and her charm, personality and worth whiteness has made her loved all over the nation. She is the author of "The Corn Lady" a popular story of rural life.

The gymnasium class is growing in interest and members. Monday afternoon for children and Monday evening for adults.

A new commonwealth club has been launched in the Y. W. C. A., composed mainly of high school girls. Miss Nancy McPherson is the leader. They meet Friday evenings and are embroidering, crocheting and tatting, getting ready for Christmas. The officers elected at the last meeting were Catherine Sheahan, Pres., Julia Stipe, Sec., and Helen Hart, Treas. Light refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed by all.

Highland Park Woman's Club

The Highland Park Woman's club will hold an evening meeting on Monday evening at the Presbyterian church. The program is to be of a musical nature.

Parents and Teachers' Association

An interesting program is being carefully worked out for the meetings of the year, for the Lincoln School Division of the Parents' and Teachers' Association. The first meeting will soon take place.

OBITUARY

On Friday, October twentieth, at Santa Monica, California, occurred the death of Matilda J. Fischer, daughter of the late Frederick and Wilhelmina Fischer and sister of George, William, Frederick, and Thomas Fischer and Mary L. McDonald. The funeral will be held at Rosehill chapel Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The deceased was a former Highland Park resident.

EDWARD C. CRAIG Candidate for Trustee of the University of Illinois

Edward C. Craig, of Matoon, Illinois, is a candidate for trustee of the University of Illinois on the Democratic ticket. His nomination was suggested to the convention by a sincere interest in the selection of trustees for the University.

Mr. Craig is a graduate of the University of Illinois with the class of 1893, and has since that time practiced law in his home city. He is a son of Judge James W. Craig, and comes from one of the best known families in central Illinois. He has made a big success in the practice of law, and is known as one of the able and prominent attorneys of the state.

He has had the university's interests sincerely at heart since graduation, and is the type of man who will help to administer its affairs in the best possible way.

The University of Illinois alumni of Highland Park and vicinity, including Robert F. Carr, one of the Trustees, earnestly endorse him.

Ossoli Club

A good number of club members heard a most witty and clever talk on "The Commuter's Wife," by Mrs. Samuel Chase, at the club meeting, Tuesday. Mrs. David Shaw was the soloist of the occasion. The following hostesses served refreshments, Mrs. Walter Baldwin, chairman, assisted by Mesdames F. M. Terry, George A. Schofield, Eugene Wilson, Russell Whitman, L. M. Bergen, P. A. Watkins, Eugene Andrews, Anna Atwater, Robert Seyfarth and the Misses Marguerite Pollansbee and Virginia Inault.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregory who have spent the summer at their summer home "Ledgemere" on S. Sheridan Road have returned to their winter home on Prairie Ave., Chicago.

Rev. H. Buchmueller of Red Bud, Ill., was the guest last week of Rev. Holke of N. Green Bay Road.

Messrs Charles Grant, Howard Huber, R. E. Seyfarth and D. S. Boynton are at Lake Puckaway, Wis., enjoying a hunting trip this week.

D. A. R.

The opening meeting of the North Shore Chapter of the D. A. R. will be held Monday afternoon, October thirtieth, two thirty o'clock. Mrs. John Oliver will be hostess. This is to be a musical program with Mrs. Herbert R. Smith, vocalist, and Mrs. James Watson, accompanist.

The chapter is to have as its winter study "Modern Preparedness" and very interesting programs are being arranged for. Prominent men in the Red Cross work, in the army, and navy are to speak at the different meetings which take place every third Monday in the month. Two musical meetings are planned for the year.

Lincoln School

On Friday, November third, there will be a meeting of the Eastern section of the Illinois State Teachers' Association held in Elgin. An unusually good program has been arranged.

The children are enjoying several new pieces of play ground apparatus. A great deal of interest is being taken in the planting of bulbs for winter bloom and spring bloom.

Mrs. Ruth Coffin Collins dancing class began its work last Friday evening in the Lincoln auditorium.

Ravinia School Notes

Captain Bradley of Allandale, addressed the school at the assembly last week and told the pupils some of the most interesting things about the boys of Allandale and their discipline.
