DEERFIELD PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

The reception Monday afternoon, the 30th in honor of Mrs. L. M. Hoyt's ninety-sixth birthday was a delightful affair. The school auditorium was prettily decorated in autumn leaves and Mrs. Hoyt sat enthroned in carnations presented by ninety-six school children.

Many old friends, representatives of the earliest settlers of Deerfield, and former residents were present. Five generations of the Hoyt family were represented. Rarely is there such a gathering and when old friends get together as they did to honor Mrs. Hoyt it makes a very delightful occasion.

Folk dances were given by two groups of middle grade children. While Miss Kent played the old old melody "Believe me if all those endearing young charms," Mrs. R. D. Supple, president of the Parent Teacher Association, presented Mrs. Hoyt with a beautiful bunch of white and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Goldring gave a reading, "The New Church Organ." Mr. Pettis introduced Judge Barnes of Zion City, who naturally fell into reminiscence, especially of his first school days in the little Willow school house.

After Mrs. Anderson sang, "When You and I were Young, Maggie" the big white birthday cake covered closely with ninety-six candles was lighted. Frappe and birthday cake were served to all.

On Nov. 10th will be the next meeting of the P. T. A. and Mrs. Goirng and Mrs. Nehmsow are the hostesses.

Mrs. James P. Gough is visiting friends in Minneapolis.

First United Evan. Church

Corner of Green Bay Road and Laurel Ave. C. G. Unangst, Pastor.
 The following program will be given next week:

The Sunday School will meet at 9:30 on Sunday morning. The subject of the lesson is "Paul's Experience When He was Shipwrecked on Melita." Acts 27:39 to 28:10. The interest in the Bible lessons is so intense that it is often difficult to close the lesson study period. A number of special features are planned for World's Temperance Sunday, Nov. 12. Speakers with stirring messages will be with us.

The Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 6:30 on Sunday evening. Subject "Consecrated Social Life." Cor. 9:19-23.

At one of the meetings on last Sunday a young man gave his testimony on how Christ had saved him from the cigarette habit and other sins. He said, "God means business with those who mean business with Him." At the meeting on Monday evening, there were a number of definite requests for prayer and the interest was extraordinary.

D. A. R.

The North Shore Chapter, D. A. R. held its first meeting of the season on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Oliver. Mrs. Herbert Smith accompanied by Mrs. James Watson sang a group of songs.

At the business meeting the secretary was instructed to write a letter protesting against secretary of War Baker's Jersey City speech. Copies of the letter to be sent to the President, the Secretary of War, the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, the Highland Park Press and the Chicago Tribune. The letter follows:

The President

Dear Sir:

The members of the North Shore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of Highland Park, Illinois, wish to offer a protest against secretary of War Baker's comparison of Washington's Continental Army with the Mexican bandits.

At a meeting of the Chapter on October 30, a motion was unanimously carried voicing their disapproval of the disloyal and unpatriotic words uttered by Sec. Baker in his speech at Jersey City on the evening of October 16, '16.

Respectfully Yours,

Evva Egan Truax,

Acting Regent.
