High School Notes

By The Students

Saturday, in the feature of a double header at Maywood, we bucked up against hard luck in the shape of a line and a backfield of the dimensions of Hercules and consequently lost, 3 to 6. Proviso had a team that averaged at least 165 pounds and despite the old fight that helped Cowie and Burridge to gain time after time, we were unable, in the face of such beef, to score. Proviso, on the other hand, could gain nothing thru our line and the count that won for them was made by a drop kick from the field. This is the second time that victory has escaped our clutches by a small margin through sheer hard luck, but we are hopeful that the jinx will fly away soon. Friday afternoon, November third, we are due to take on the Thornton eleven. The high school brass band, which acquired so much popularity thru-out the school last year by its performances at the football and basketball games, has again sprung into prominence. Nearly all the old members have returned and a gratifying number of volunteers have offered their services. The leader year is Mr. Paul Blanchard, an ex-army band conductor of great experience and rare ability. On account of the rapidly approaching review at Fort Sheridan, the pieces practiced at rehearsals have been, for the most part, marches. On the whole the band prospects for the coming year present a most favorable and pleasing outlook. This year's orchestra is the largest and finest ever. Practices are held during fifth period and after school on Mondays. The spirit and good feeling which is rapidly increasing assures success. The orchestra played a march, "Our Nation's Pride" in general assembly for its first appearance, and is now practicing "The Priest's March" from Athalia, "Evening twilight," "The Bridal Rose Overture," "Orange Blossoms" and "Chin-Chin" to be used for future occasions. Last Friday afternoon, through the courtesy of Dr. Dobson, Mr. Fraser, supervisor of music in the Deerfield-Shields high school, took the members of his Musical Theory class to the First Presbyterian Church of Highland Park to hear and inspect the pipe organ. The classes have been studying the history and mechanism of the pipe organ, so Mr. Fraser wished them to actually see one while it was being performed upon.

The first meeting of the P. T. A. will be held Monday, November the twentieth. Miss Chamberlain, of the Art Department, will talk on "Suggestions on Suitable Clothes for School Girls."

After this meeting the P. T. A. will meet on the first Monday of each month. All who are interested are invited to join this organization. The dues are fifty cents a year.

The senior forum met Friday, October twenty seventh in the English club room. Before the regular program was presented, a preliminary presidential election was held, resulting in thirteen votes for Mr. Hughes and three for President Wilson.

The program was as follows: A portion of the second inaugural Address of Lincoln, Bowen Schumacher Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, Charles Beckwith Debate: Resolved that Football is harmful physically to high school students.

The debate was won by the affirmative by a vote of two to one.

Mr. Schneider's and Mr. Perts's Shop and Mechanical Drawing classes, impatient for the coming of Election Day, have taken a straw ballot for the presidential election. According to their prediction Mr. Hughes is to be our next president. The votes stood as follows: Shop, 23-17 for Hughes; Mechanical Drawing, 30-27 for Hughes. Total 52-44 in favor of Hughes.

The Domestic Science classes, under the supervision of Miss Norton, Miss Ames and Miss Chamberlain, have finished making their fall hats and are now preparing for the cold weather by making winter dresses.

Highland Park Woman's Club

An open meeting of the Highland Park Woman's Club was held Monday evening, October 30th at the Highland Park Presbyterian church. An appreciative audience heard reading by Miss Grace Hickox, an exponent of dramatic art, one of Chicago's foremost impersonators of Shakespearean characters. Following the program a social hour concluded an enjoyable evening.
