ELECTION ADDS SIX STATES TO DRY LIST

Anti-Saloon League Reports Dry Battles Won.

Columbus, Nov. 9.—Headquarters of the Anti-Saloon league at Westerville reported it had information that the dry forces had won statewide prohibition fights in five states. The states named were Michigan, Montana, South Dakota, Utah and Nebraska and in Michigan by 80,000.

With the elections in these states Anti-Saloon league officials said that twenty-four states, one-half the union, are now in the dry column.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—James R. Mann, Philip H. Tracy, his Democratic op are now eleven Democratic and two ponent, was 22,313.

WILSON COLUMN

President Jumps into Lead of About 5,000.

STATE NOW SEEMS SECURE

Of Precincts Yet to Hear From One-Half Are Democratic, and Republican Strongholds Fail to Show Expected Gain-One G. O. P. County Switches to Wilson.

New York, Nov. 9 .- Republican national Chairman Willcox said, "I believe Hughes has been elected and he shares my views. We ask only what is fair; we want only what we are entitled to and that we propose to have."

Asbury Park, N. J., Nov. 9 .- Secretary Tumulty said, "The President is sure of California and Minnesota. Besides these North Dakota, Kansas, New . Mexico, . New . Hampshire . and West Virginia are ours. The Republicans are not sure of a single state west of the Mississippi except Iowa."

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—President Woodrow Wilson began a large lead in California's vote counting in the greatest neck and neck race on record in a presidential fight. For the first time in history, the west held the balance of power in a national

After the tally had seesawed hour by hour, Wilson forged ahead. The count of 4,306 of the state's 5,917 precincts showed the President with a lead of 1,538 over Charles Evans Hughes, their totals then standing: Wilson 339,195; Hughes, 337,657.

Wilson's gain on that count was almost as big as the lead Hughes had previously held over him.

Los Angeles Slumps. The change for the Democrats was ascribed in part to a surprising slump indicated in Los Angeles figures. Hughes nad been expected at first to lead there by 20,000, and then by 10,-000. The count of 419 city and county precincts of a total of 1,215 showed Wilson with 41,455 against Hughes

43,443. Wilson Leads by 4,685. San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Returns from 4,443 precincts out of 5,917 in California give Wilson 352,623; Kansas City. Nov. 9.—This city Hughes 347,933. The following counvoted for prohibition by a majority of ties are still to be heard from: Los has gone 350 for Wilson.

California't total registration estimated at 1,313,980.

DEMOCRATIC RANKS IN CONGRESS LESS

House Majority May Dwindle from 23 to 5.

New York, Nov. 9 .- With seventysix congressional districts to be cleared up, Republicans have gained nineteen sears over their quota in the present house, while the Democrats have gained ten, a net gain of nine for the Republicans, which reduces the present Democratic majority of twentythree to five. Two Democratic districts in New Jersey reported doubtful, would if reversed reduce the majority

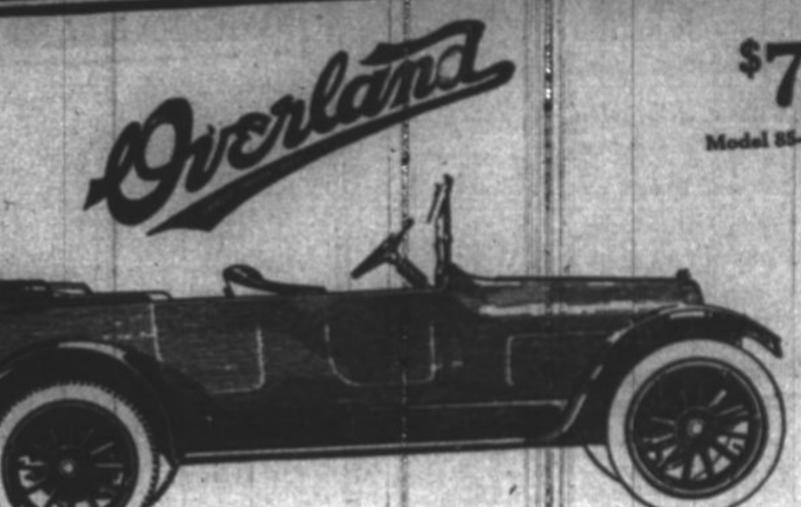

Late returns from Ohio indicating the re-election of Senator Atlee Pomerene, Democrat, ever Myron T. Herrick, Republicar, virtually ended the possibility of Republican ascendancy in the senate, With Democratic leaders insisting that Hitchcock in Nebraska and Pittman in Nevada have been re-elected and with Kendrick probably elected in Wyoming, the political status of the new senate would be: Democrats, 52; Republi, cans, 42, with the result in Arizona and Uew Mexico in doubt. Should the Republicans carry both, the Democratic majority in the senate would be

CLAIM NINE CONGRESSMEN.

Indiana Republicans Concede the Democrats but Four.

Indianapolis, Nov. 9.—The congressional delegation from Indiana, according to Republican reports, is that the ing: W. D. Comsteck, Sixth district; Albert H. Vestal, Eight district; Will R. Wood, Tenth district; Merrill Moores, Seventh district; Everett Sanders, Fifth district; Milton Kraus, Eleventh district (very close); Oscar E. Eland, Second district; Louis W. Fairfield, Twelfth district; Fred S.

Purnell, Ninth district. The Democrats probably have the following: W. E. Cox, Third district; elected to congress by a plurality of Lincoln Dixon, Fourth district; Henry count. His vote was 43,649. That of George Denton, First district. There

Like a "boost" from the boss when you're anxious—they satisfy!

When things are going hard and along comes the boss with a good, cheering word-say, doesn't that satisfy?

That's the very thing Chesterfields do for your smoking-they satisfy!

And yet Chesterfields are MILD!

No cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend. They're the ONLY mild cigarette that satisfies. This blend is an entirely new combination of tobaccos—the biggest new thing in cigarette making in 20 years.
