Plenty of Bread for Thanksgiving

will be needed with the turkey. Providing it is our bread, which has such a fine flavor it just fits in with that of the great American bird. Buy an extra loaf or two for the dressing. Buy them today and put them away. If you put our bread on the table there won't be any left to make dressing of. It's too good to be let get stale.

DEERFIELD NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. John Conick and Mr. and Mrs. William Conick of Chicago, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ender Sunday.

Misses Irene Kent, Lela Glyneh, Edith Davies, Messrs. Carl Anderson, Carl Rommel, and Harry Muhleke motored to Libertyville Tuesday evening where they attended a dancing party given by the Merry Makers club at the auditorium.

Deerfield lovers of musical entertainment were given the second concert by the Century Lyceum Bureau at the school Assembly Hall Saturday evening. The Old Kentucky Quartet considered by the Lyceum Bureau to be some of their best talent participated in the entertainment. Two of the Quartet are Tennesseans, one was a member of the famous Byrons Troubadors, and the other was with one of the most popular jubilee camps in the lyceum for five years. This the Quartet are Tennesseans, one by humorous and camp meeting songs banjo and violin played individual and group numbers.

Deerfield Presbyterian Church

Human Pencils was the subject of Rev. Orsborn's morning sermon to the children. The Grace of Quietness, from Thessalonians, 4, II was the theme of the regular sermon. Of intense and thrilling interest are the Sunday evening sermon lectures for November. John Chrysostom, the Prince of Preachers and the man who defied a queen, was the recital of one of the most adventurous lives among the saints.

Miss Elizabeth Knickerboker of Chicago, was the week end guest of Miss Helen Schinleber.

Mr. and Mrs. Romayne Stryker of Chicago, were the guests at the home of Mrs. Stryker's parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Knaak, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hanley and Mr. H. Robbins of Chicago, were guests of the Karch family Sunday.
