

Plenty of Bread for Thanksgiving

will be needed with the turkey. Providing it is our bread, which as such a fine flavor it just fits in with that of the great American ird. Buy an extra loaf or two for he dressing. Buy them today and out them away. If you put our bread on the table there won't be any left to make dressing of. It's too good to be let get stale.

Geary's Home Bakery 20 W. Central Avenue

Fuel is Scarce and High

Chances are it will be more so Soft Coal

Coke Hard Coal

Now in Stock

North Shore Fuel & Supply Co.

PHONE 67

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL.

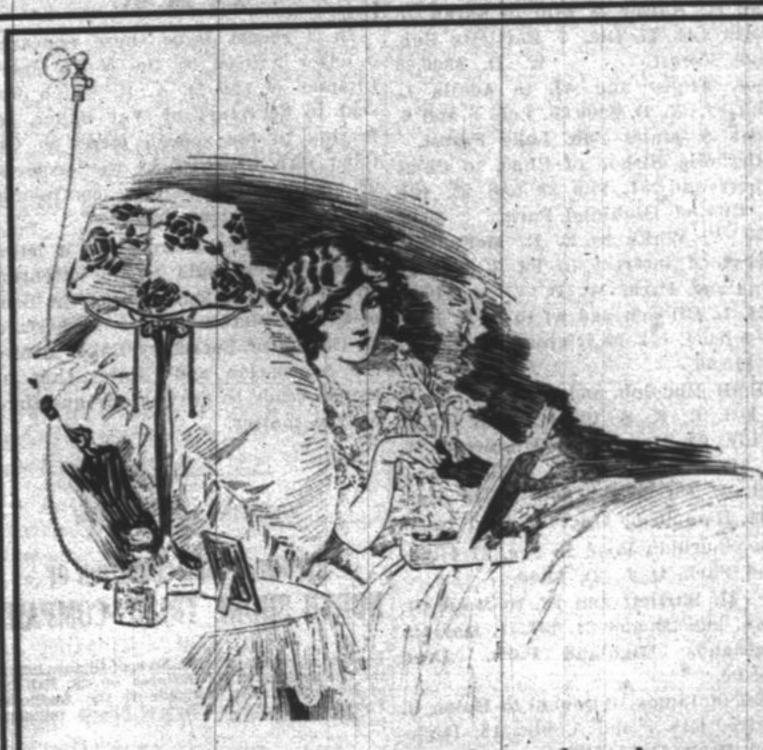

F you intend to buy her a wrist watch for Christmas come into Schneiders and see the special $15 Elgin.

R. W. SCHNEIDER

13 S. St. Johns Ave.

Tel. 133

Beautiful Line of Christmas Gifts

The young lady in the picture is not the only member of her sex in the world who favors the habit and possibly active search might develop some male bipeds fond of reading in bed. Tisn't a bad location wherein to absorb the contents of a good book. But the unities and comfort demand what is easily operated in the Electrified House----

A Reading Lamp

Built in numerous styles; many light in weight; we sell 'em-

Reading lamps should be fitted with Tungsten lights, frost globes, and of a calibre to suit the conditions

Public Service Co.

of Northern Illinois

Y. W. C. A. News

The different clubs of the Y are industriously engaged in making pretty as well as useful articles for the Bazaar to be held early in December in the Assembly Room the Association. Each club will have a both and the proceeds will be sued for the summer camp that the Association will promote for a couple of weeks during the summer of 1917.

The cooperation of all friends of the Y. W. C. A. is earnestly desired so as to make possible this outing

The Mother's Club of the Y. W. C. All mothers of girls in the Associaday, December 15th. A most excellent program will be presented. Further particulars will appear next week. All mothers of girls in the Association are invited and urged to attend.

The Bnusy Workers Club was reorganized Tuesday afternoon and the following officers elected: Pres., Irene Stevens; Sec., Dorothy Evans; Membership Committee, Irene Ingalis and Frances Borchardt. The girls made very pretty fudge aprons at their first meeting and will take up sewing from now on.

Highland Park Woman's Club

m. Tuesday November twenty first at Witten's Hall included interesting reports from delegates attending the Tenth District meeting, Miss Pownall and Mrs. Reesman, Mrs. A. L. Renning reported on the Federation at Champaign, Ills. A most delightful afternoon followed when Mrs. H. R. Smith, accompanied by Mrs. James Watson charmingly sang groups of songs, and Mrs. Henry S. Vail truly gave us an "Afternoon in Sicily," taking her audience from the sublime to the ugly, recalling historical and mythological sketches, not omitting the poetical and descriptive touches. At the close of the meeting the hostesses were as follows: Mrs. Fred Schaeffer, chairman, Mesdames William Millard and Gsell pouring assisted by Mesdames Frank Green, Pingrey, McDougal, Scott, Rice, F. A. Tucker, Briedert, Palmer, A. Warren and Miss Muller.

The next meeting will be held at Witten's hall December fifth, when Dr. Wirt Lowther will speak on "The Art of Seeing Things."

Ebenezer E vangelical

A special meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will be held at the residence of Mrs. Ernst. Every member s urged to be present.

The pastor left on Monday to assist Rev. Manshardt, at Ashton, Ill., in revival meetings, Mr. T. A. Quayle of Lake Forest will occupy the pulpit on November 26th. Those who have heard him know that his message is always the good old Gospel presented in a wonderful manner. You cannot afford to miss hearing Mr.

The services for Sunday are: Sunday School at ten a. m. (Passengers aboard the Mauretania and The Aquitania take notice)

Morning worship at eleven and vening worship at seven-thirty. Mr. Umbach, the pastor expects to eturn on Monday.

Trinity Church Notes

Bible History conducted by Mr. Gratiot will take place on Sunday evening, next at eight o'clock, in the Parish House. Everyone who is interested in this work is most cordially invited to be present. Mr. Gratiot's work has received immediate enthusiasm and he is well qualified to present the proper light on all his work,

ADVERTISED LETTERS

Bowers G. Mrs. Craig M. H. Mr. and Mrs. Foy Eddie Grandholm Olga Miss Ikonen Dora Miss Littlefield Arthur Mr. and Mr. Littlefield C. G. Mr. Le Comte Al Mr. Page Fred Mr. and Mrs. Von Metre Richer Mr. Advertised Nov. 21 ,1916.

Lake Bluff Orphanage

Owing to the fact that it was deemed unwise to hold our annual Harvest Home, we are having Christmas sale of candy and fancy articles, made by the children to held during the week beginning the 4th of December.

We are also having a Parcel Post | So he submitted with good grace and the parsonage a home for him. The packages not to be opened until er severe rooms.

Those wishing to purchase Christmas gifts would do well to visit the Orphanage before purchasing else-

Parson Frake's Donation

And He Took the Bishop's Advice.

By CLARISSA MACKIE

When Arthur Frake was graduated from the theological seminary before taking his departure he called on the good old man had favored him with isn't that which I wish to speak to you about. It isn't anything concern

"We clergymen are apt to be made or marred-as all men are-by the wives we choose. Now, look out whom field, and if you marry a worldly woman it would be better for you that you The business meeting called at tied a millstone about your neck. It doesn't matter where you find a wife. She should have a sympathetic nature, to feel for those whom it becomes your part to help. Indeed, she should make

This was the bishop's advice. Mr. but he had his doubts about finding a girl that would fill his adviser's conditions. He had always associated with the upper ten thousand and had not Instead of living for the world he had usually found them disposed to consider the world as especially created to administer to their comfort.

Nevertheless he shrank from taking better to be allied with a woman to the blush? Then, too, his own family were to be considered. Naturally they would expect him to marry one whom they might receive as a social

Mr. Frake's first call was to a village wherein dwelt only a few thousand people. His congregation was not at all like those of which he had been member himself during his boyhood and youth. They were plain people honest in their way, but as to spirit uality, or, rather, humanity, he did not find them any better than those he had known in the city. One day soon after taking the pastorate while writing in his study, looking up from his sermon. he saw his housekeeper standing in the

"What is it, Mrs. Wells?" he asked Mrs. Wells, fat and panting from a morning spent over the ironing board. wiped her forehead with a crisp white dried fruit, bags of flour, jars of pre-

Tuttles making trouble over the dis tributing of the pews, then the quar | Millie Rhodes sat quietly in a corner rel in the choir, and I knew that there with a group of friends, and there was would be a third calamity!" "You haven't told me what it smiled Arthur Frake. "A donation, sir!"

"A donation," he repeated, aghast. "Dear me, I wish they wouldn't, Mrs.

Wells. They mean well, but"-

"Ob, their intentions are all right, interrupted the housekeeper darkly, for she had served many ministers and many donation parties, "but they don The first meeting of the class in realize that by the time they've scended like a flock of locusts and eat en all the food they've brought and more, too, why, I'm left with a house you're the richer by a jar of Beulah Humphrey's sour pickles and maybe few bushels of potatoes that we didn't have time to cook for 'em."

Arthur Frake laughed heartily. "There's a measure of truth in what you say, Mrs. Wells," he admitted motive underneath this invasion. They best we can to make it pleasant for surprise. I wouldn't have known word of it if Betsy Haskell hadn't warped me. I'm glad to know, so's I can bake some beans and corn bread: fore then they needn't eat up all the layer cakes and salads they bring!"

left the minister to resume his sermon This was his first charge, and he was sincerely desirous of being adviser and friend to his little flock. They were all plain village people, with a large percentage of prosperous families but he had believed that they were festivities of the past century. Still. Bayport clung to many traditions, and it was evident that a donation party for the new minister was a cherished sale in connection and we are ask- the next afternoon picked all the chrys- "It will be a donation," he smiled ing our friends to send us a package anthemums in the parsonage garden to down at her, "the best donation you to cost not more than ten cents. bedeck the immaculately neat but rath can make to me and my people. We

As he wandered about Arthur Frake

she was not a home maker. Lucy J. Judson, Superintendent | might be many years before he had a | the minister's heart.

because she can't bring anything."

meet Mn Frake. You've never met Frake came, Oh, Mr. Frake, here's the first one, Miss Millie Rhodes, from the Hollow farm!"

lack, and he recollected that they had said she had lost her mother. Her arms were filled with flowers chrystrailing lengths of orange and scarlet iums with sweet smelling leaves.

"It was all I had to bring," she said little wistfully as she dropped them "And a beautiful dountion, Miss Rhodes. I thank you," said the minis-Will you add another favor-arrange them about the rooms? No, only in So Millie Rhodes stepped lightly to and fro, arranging vases and bowls of trailing the dogwood and bittersweet at the minister's request placing the flowers," he said gravely. And they were from that instant.

and a loud ringing at the front door. The house was filled with a merry crowd of the minister's flock, all pushing forward to shake his hand and utter good wishes. Each one brought and soon the kitchen tables were heap serves and pickles, toothsome layer "I wondered what would come next," cakes and pies and all the goodies that she groaned. "First, there was the farmers' wives know how to manufac-> a quiet happiness in her face that no one save Mrs. Wells and Sarah Smith and, of course, the minister quite upanly touches that the room needed that," thought Arthur Frake as be moved among his peop

This donation was not exactly like other donation parties. Even Emm Wells admitted that. To begin with there was such an abundance of gifts that the company could not possible was served at 10 o'clock

The old parsonage had always been gloomy place in the pastorate of the aged Mr. Walker, and tonight there old that the parish was united in stronger bonds of love than ever be went away-"good night, Mr. Frake.

And Arthur Frake, having blessed ness for the kindness that was show

And he especially prayed for Mills

Frake lingered at the Hollow farm need you. Mille Rhodes.

And when they were married, why, was conscious that his home lacked the of course the minister's people must feminine touch. Mrs Wells was an make another donation, and this time excellent cook and housekeeper, but the parsonage was cozy and homelike with a woman's touch, the same touch He thought rather ruefully that it which had lighted the fame of love in

Butter, Eggs, and Hom Dressed Poultry

Lake Shore Creamery

F. A. TUCKER, Propriete

515 Oakwood Ave. Highland Park, III

DENTISTS

Suite 4, 5 and 6, State Bank Blde HIGHLAND PARK, HI

C. M. GATES PAINTING

Paper Hanging and Decorating

244 E. Park Avenue

TELEPHONE 956

JOHN IBACH LANDSCAPE GARDENER Work of any kind by day or Contract. Care of Furnaces 437 Deerfield Ave.

EXPRESS AND BAGGAGE Freight Transfer Prompt Service J. A. McCLORY

Tel. 946 121 St. John's Ave., Highland Park, III

Swift's Commercial Fertilizers FOR SALE BY Frank Kottrasch

J. Smith

Pays the Highest Cash Prices Wholesale and Retail Dealer for Iron Rags Metal Rubber Bottles Paper, etc.

Automobile Tires, Metals & Rubbers A SPECIALTY

Drop me a postal card or telephone me and I will call for goods

Telephone 410

60 North First St. Highland Park

Pennsylvania Oilproo VACUUM CUP TIRES

ments else-after reasonable to 6,000 Miles

bought we'd handle The Yellow and Blue Vacuute Cup Sign tinguishes our store.

Central Tire Co. = A. E. SMITH, Manage 118 E. Central Ave Highland Park

Patrick

crat, by sixty-fix said to have be to seventy bushe

Raymond Cha thrown under Lanark. Jonathan Mai old, voted at Fr Polk in 1844. was killed when ing ran away, at Mount Sterli

convicted of va

city streets u

their term of se by the Aurora; hand, the body railroad track struck and inst The Pana which has been three years, du abandoned, was placed at work in jail under he who were enjo The Ridgles $60,000. When roof there we They were ma Dr. W. K. H at Carthage c vedding of h Ralph Ehrenn and his sons ished the mu Grant Fletc. just been tries rille Fletcher, he claims to hi whereby he a W. worker a Chicago Teler in an order by man and other

er and farme

olf through t Mrs. Mary at her home a urated her cl uched them have been the Vandalia, ven years c nde store an of his late er Cyril Pritel rin lightwel uchdown w ightweights ult of injur akled auris are not expe nd 12 o'cloc deputy Klaer. The B f the state t Quincy. Mrs. Lucy er, principal ler murder ti Mrs. Sayler following 4 from the J days ago., he YERTS AND.