Deerfield News Items

The promise of a very entertaining season by the Parent Teacher Association with the aid of the Lyceum Bureau is being fulfilled. Last Thursday evening a comparatively large audience gathered at the school auditorium and seemed to find genuine pleasure in the Genevieve Smith Company. Miss Alice Genevieve Smith is considered one of the finest harpists in the city of Chicago, her work both as a soloist and accompanist, is known all over the country as she has given concerts in Chicago, New York, Colorado Springs, Galveston, Buffalo, New Orleans, and many other places. Miss Smith was assisted by Miss Helen Norton, a character reader who has a winning personality and natural gifts as an entertainer. She has studied and traveled abroad and has a thorough training in her chosen art, being a graduate of the Cummoek School of Oratory. The many numbers rendered by both Miss Norton and Miss Smith Thursday evening were most interesting and agreeable and with their pleasing manner they found no trouble in winning the immediate favor and approval of their audience. Miss Norton's selections were of considerable variety, including the humorous, dramatic, dialect and reading in costume and with harp accompaniment. Miss Smith played the harp beautifully and her repertoire was extensive and included several numbers with the piano accompaniment. Miss Norton and Miss Smith sang two delightful duets, a German and an Irish dialect song. In addition to the musical numbers, Miss Smith discussed very intelligently the history of the harp and explained the many different parts. To offset the apparent failure of the Old Kentucky Jubilee Quartet a few weeks ago the Lyceum Bureau has promised to send out some time in January one of their best companies, a white male quartet and those holding season tickets and who paid stage admission to the Jubilee concert will be admitted without any additional fee. The date of this concert will be announced later.
