Ossoli Club

It is the custom of the Ossoli club to give two evening programs a year. One of these programs was given on Tuesday evening, before an appreciative audience.

Public Library Notes

The library reports a very successful "good book week." On Friday Mayor Hastings and Commissioner Willits visited the library and through the generosity of our mayor the library will receive for one year "Sea Power," a monthly magazine, which is put out by the Navy League.

The "youngsters" responded to the story hour in very large numbers on Saturday morning, the girls telling the stories, under Miss Southwick's direction, were Dorothy Laing, Mary Cavil and Sara Kerfoot. Announcement through these columns will be made of a later story hour.

The rule of taking but one book on one card is to be abolished and one may draw as many books at one time as one wishes. This rule does not include the "seven day" books.

The fact that there were so many new faces seen at the library last week was quite encouraging to the librarians, and it makes them want "to do it again." Next week's issue will contain a list of the new books which have been placed on the shelves ready for use.
