What is this County Doing

The Illinois Centennial Commission, composed of fifteen gentlemen selected by the Governor, working without salary, is anxious to have every county interested in preparing for the celebration of the 100 anniversary of the admission of the state into the Union, December 3rd, 1918. In every county the Judge Clerk, State's Attorney and Superintendent of Schools, have been requested by the Commission to take an active interest in this work and organize the county for celebrations this year and next, and it is hoped these officials will now begin active work towards this end. A plan for scenarios for counties will be prepared and can be obtained by writing the Secretary of the Commission, Mrs. Jessie Palmer Weber, Springfield, Ill. A good time to prepare for the work this year would be at a "Home Coming" this summer. There is no better state in the Union than Illinois and we should all be proud of her and celebrate the 100th anniversary of her birth in a manner commensurate with her greatness.

When a dog hollers it makes a big noise. And that is about all you can say for some people when they open their mouths.

It pays to keep your eyes on two spots—the advertising pages of this paper and the stores of the merchants who advertise.

Some people are willing to be good if paid for it, and others are good for nothing.

Alas for the intellect when the understanding is limited only by the size of the feet.

When conscience will not allow you to speak good of a neighbor, keep still.

Happiness is a perfume, that one cannot shed over another without a few drops falling on oneself.

Whoso stoppeth his ear at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

To speak wisely may not always be easy. But not to speak ill, requires only silence.

Whenever you hear a town spoken well of you may know that its citizens are on the same plane as its reputation.

The charity that tries to help the slum hasn't much time to slumber.

A shiftless man is always boasting of what he would do if he had the money.

In after years a man rejoices because of the failure of youthful ambitions.

DEATHS

Mrs. J. S. Brown, mother of Mrs. H. B. Roberts of this city, passed away suddenly, Jan. 6th, while visiting Dr. and Mrs. Roberts.

Mrs. Brown was so unflinchingly cheerful and active that the thought of not seeing her again is to her host of friends here, a sadness to realize. Mrs. Brown was of colonial ancestry. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, also of the Chamberlain Association of America, an organization to perpetuate the history of a distinguished family.

Interment was in Greenwood cemetery at LaGrange, Indiana, for fifty years the home of the deceased.
