HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Saturday night, January 13, our two quintets journeyed to Chicago Heights for a dual combat and came away after annexing the heavy-weight half of the bill and losing the lightweight battle. This victory for the heavies makes two won and one lost, and makes the lightweights' record three lost. As both fives are for the most part somewhat "green" we are almost satisfied with this record. Tuesday, the 16th, we played with our ancient enemy, New Trier but lost both light and heavy-weight games.

On Wednesday afternoon the Social Committee of the Parent-Teachers Association held a business meeting at the close of which they entertained the students at a dancing party in the girls' gymnasium.

Monday Miss Alice Heathcote McElrath, a former teacher in the English Department, visited Deerefield-Shields and told many interesting stories of her experiences as a banker.

The usual Monday general assembly was dispensed with this week to make room for a basketball rally which was held in the girls' gymnasium. The celebration was in honor of the heavyweight team which won games last week from Riverside and from Chicago Heights.

Wa-Tah-Wa-So, Bright Star, princess royal of the Penobscot Indians, gave a most interesting program on Tuesday in the girls' gymnasium. Dressed in tribal costume, she spoke eloquently of the Indians' mode of life, political systems, and folk-lore, illustrating by ceremonial dances, songs and stories.

She began her program with an account of her own tribe, who live on an island in the Penobscot River, near Old Town, Maine. This was followed by a group of songs, among which were the following: "A Song of the Thunder Bird," "Her Blanket," a song of the Navajo Women, "Pawpoo," "Deer Flower," "The Curse of the Birch Tree," "By the Waters of Minnetonka," Sung in Penobscot language, "The Crow Maiden's Prayer Song." Next came some legends.

The story of the beginnings of the Red Men's Race, and the Legend of the Red-headed Woodpecker, illustrated by a song to the woodpecker. The hour ended with the Wedding Ceremonial Dance, followed by the War Dance as taught Wa-Tah-Wa-So to their chief, Big Thunder.

FIRST UNITED EVAN.

The pastor, Mr. Unangst, is presenting several interesting subjects for thinking people during the evenings of this week. Thursday his subject will be "What Christ Teaches Concerning Future Punishment, Its Certainty, Its Character, Its Continuity, Its Cause." Friday "Paul's Teaching on the Doctrine of Sin." Sunday morning at 10:45 there will be a sermon based on this fact: "Atonement Universal, Forgiveness Limited."

At 7:30 in the evening will come this question "Where Will You Spend Eternity?"

We will have Christian Endeavor prayer meeting as usual at 6:30. These meetings are especially helpful and interesting to the young people. The leader on last Sunday evening and all the regular members of the C. E. were grateful for the number of visitors at the meeting. It always proves an inspiration and we hope that they enjoy us as we enjoy them.

At 9:30 in the morning the Sunday school will meet and study about the "First Disciples of the Lord Jesus," found in St. John 1:35-51.

For those who do not subscribe for the church paper "The Evangelical," it may be well to mention that this paper is being placed in the Public Library every week. This is a splendid paper, read it and find out what your church is doing.

OSSOLI CLUB

Owing to Mr. Snyder's inability to come the Study Class will be postponed from this afternoon at two-thirty to the twenty-fifth at two-thirty.

These study classes are open to all women in Highland Park, who may be interested in the subjects.

The subject for next week, is "Some Aspects of Contemporary Fiction."

These classes are in charge of the art and literature department, Mrs. Carleton Vail, chairman.

The next regular meeting of the Ossoli Club will take place Tuesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. Mr. Howard H. Gross will talk on "Dangers to Democracy." The day is in charge of the Civics and Philanthropy department. Mr. Gross who is a most convincing speaker has spoken before at Ossoli club meetings.

HIGHLAND PARK CLUB

The Childrens Vaudeville on Saturday, the 27th, promises to be one of the biggest features of the season. The entertainment Committee and Mrs. Daniel Cobb are working up a series of acts which will take in all ages from the little folks of about six years old to the "young People." A Tableau, "The Land of Nod," will require between twenty and thirty of the very small people and Mrs. Cobb would be glad if parents would kindly let her know at the earliest moment the names of the children.

"A Recruiting Station" will be another feature. The following is the cast for this act, Messrs. Nathan Corwith, Jr., Rodney Mason, Allen Mason, Groscep Samspeil, Arthur Jerrens, Charles Deat, Otho Morgan, David Samspeil, Jack Clements, Colin Page, Robert Wilson. For the Minstrel Troop, the artists, Messrs Seward Baldwin, Fred Spencer, Rodney Mason, Cloribew Morgan, Wallace Kimball, Bowen Schumacher, Kay Gard, Grace Carqueville, and Ery Foote, have promised to put their best foot straight out to in order to carry off the palm of the evening. The young ladies taking part in the Parool Drill says its to be their evening, so altogether there is a pleasant rivalry as to who will have the honors. However there will be some pleasant surprises for all when the entertainment takes place.

For the very small children there will only be one rehearsal and that will be on Saturday afternoon of the occasion. Next week the names of all the children who are to take part will be announced.

Henry J. Hadfield's costume recital of Kiplings "Poet and Man" was a delightful affair at the Highland Park Club on Tuesday evening. An appreciative audience, though small, responded feelingly to Mr. Hadfield's beautiful program.

WOMAN'S CIVIC CLUB

At the meeting of the Woman's Civic Club of Ravinia, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 10th, a program of instrumental music was given by Mrs. Emily Parsons Hunt, formerly of Highland Park, now living in Evanston. Many of her old friends from Highland Park, were there to greet her and the children of the higher grades in the Ravinia School were invited in to hear her. She chose to emphasize the lyrical possibilities of the piano, giving a program of Chopin, Mendelssohn, Schubert and the modern Russian composers. "A charming program charmingly executed" is a short way of reporting the affair.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

Dr. Lena Sadler of Chicago, will address the Elm Place Division of Parents and Teachers Association at the next regular meeting to be held in the auditorium of Elm Place school, Wednesday afternoon, January twenty-fourth.

The general public is cordially invited to be present.

EBENEZER EVANGELICAL

Sunday services will be held as follows: Sunday School at 10 a. m., Morning Worship 11 a. m., Evening Worship 7:30. Thos. Quayle will preach on Sunday morning. E. M. Umbach, Pastor.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

A Board Meeting was held Tuesday morning, Jan. 9th, at which time it was decided to hold the Annual Meeting of the Association on Thursday evening, Jan. 25th, to which all contributing and Senior members are eligible. Reports will be given from all clubs and classes showing what has been accomplished during the past year.

It is a great source of satisfaction for the Association to be able to use a room in the Highwood City Hall for the girls sewing clubs of the Highwood Branch. This courtesy has been granted them thru the interest of the city council and will enable the Association to do more effective work in that the above place is more accessible than the Port Clinton school and already plans are made for a big meeting in the near future.

The Friendship club held a business meeting Monday evening and elected the following officers: Pres., Frieda Kreuger, Vice Pres., Alice DeYoung, Sec., Lottie Belaki, Treas., Lydia Voight, Social Committee, Helen Jones, Lydia Heckman and Elizabeth Engwick. They decided to hold a party Jan. 18th, for members only and every third Thursday in the month will be given over to a social.

ELM PLACE SCHOOL

The annual mid year exercises of the eighth grade class will take place on Friday, January twenty-sixth. A class of five boys and seven girls will receive diplomas of the eighth grade, and the following Monday morning will begin work at the high school. The members of the class are as follows: Helen Watson, Elizabeth Bourrique, Estelle Frakes, Gladys Pearl, Hilda Larson, James Bolan, William White, George Bahr, Fred Becker, and Ernest Genest.

Professor J. Paul Goode of the University of Chicago, will give the special address on the occasion. Diplomas will be presented to the pupils by the President of the Board of Education, Mr. E. B. Metzler. A special musical program by the seventh and eighth grade pupils will be given under the direction of Miss Annis Jewett.

Beginning Monday morning, January twenty-ninth, the second semester of work will begin. At this time there will be a beginning class in first grade work. This is open to kindergarten children that have completed their work, and to all other children in the school district that have reached the age of six years. Children not less than five years of age are received in the kindergarten at any time, but the first week of February is a very appropriate time for children to enter.

Tuesday afternoon the young Indian woman of the Penobscot tribe whose tribal name is Wa-Tah-Wa-So gave an entertainment in the school auditorium which was greatly appreciated by the pupils and teachers. It consisted of songs, telling of legends and Indian dances. The young woman is unusually gifted and the entertainment was one of the most delightful of its kind given at Elm Place in years.
