EBENEZER EVANGELICAL

The Revival meetings which began last Sunday evening are increasing in interest and attendance. The message of song brought by "Blind Willie" Strasser is a most interesting and helpful feature.

Mr. Strasser has been without the use of his eyes ever since he was two weeks old. From early boyhood he manifested a talent for music. This he was permitted to cultivate until now he is a master at the piano. His voice, which is a strong baritone, has attracted much attention wherever he has sung. His gospel songs are heart-stirring. No one can afford to miss this rare treat.

The meetings will continue during all of next week with the exception of Saturday night. Mr. Strasser will sing at every service.

Evangelist W. H. Manshardt, of Ashton, Ill., will assist in the meeting beginning with Monday night, Feb. 5th. Mr. Manshardt has had remarkable success as an evangelist. His message is the pure unadorned gospel and comes from a heart aglow with love for precious souls. His delivery is pleasing and his earnestness soul-gripping. He will preach every evening next week.

The meetings begin at 7:30 with a song service. Everyone is invited to attend.

Sunday School at 10 a. m. "Blind

Willie" will sing and the pastor will give a special talk to the children. Sunday evening service at 7:30.

E. M. Umbach, Pastor.

OBITUARY

John W. Richards, died at his home on N. Green Bay Road on Sunday morning, following an attack of blood poisoning caused by a cut while cleaning a milk bottle. Little attention was paid to the small cut, which apparently was healed, but infection took hold inwardly and when doctors were called on Thursday, it was already too late, as his entire system was poisoned and the end came suddenly. Mr. Richards was born April 28, 1879, on the same property where he died. He spent his entire lifetime in Highland Park. He was thirty-seven years, nine months of age and was the third son of Frederick C. and Mary E. Richards. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at eight-thirty from St. Mary's church with Rev. O'Neill officiating. Burial was made in St. Mary's Cemetery at Lake Forest. The deceased leaves to survive him a wife Rose Richards, three brothers, Charles A. Richards of Lake Forest, a wife Rose Richards of this city, Fred N. and Peter Richards of this city, two sisters, Mrs. Layrence H. Spedel of Lake Forest and Mrs. W. Charles E. Geary of this city. His father and mother are also residents of this city.

H. P. WOMAN'S CLUB

The Highland Park Woman's Club met in Witten Hall last Tuesday afternoon at two thirty. The rendition of the two groups of selections at the piano by Miss Tannenbaum of Chicago, was thoroughly admired and enjoyed by all. Mrs. Allen gave a very instructive talk on "Treasures of the Art Institute" making us realize what we have so near at hand. She made several interesting suggestions for those who were going to take advantage of View Day at the Institute Wednesday.

There was also a brief talk by Mrs. Phelan of the State Suffrage Alliance. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. F. B. Hussey, chairman, Mrs. H. D. Faxon and Mrs. A. Paul Smith pouring assisted by Mesdames Harriet Hall, A. W. Strong, Henry J. Thayer, Frank C. Clark, J. Rogerson, Charles F. Grant, A. M. Lowrie, and Robert White.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Tuesday evening, February sixth at eight o'clock in the lecture room of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church. This meeting is to be open to guests of club members.

An exceptionally fine meeting is promised, in the coming of Miss Mary Agnes Best of New York, perhaps better known by her pen name of "Molly Best", the noted writer and platform anecdotist. Many members will recall with great pleasure, having heard her two years ago.

As a social worker Miss Best has lived among the people of New York's "other half" and she has followed up to the years of this experience with frequent visits to the slums of every large city in this country and England. Her anecdotes are illustrative of the character speech, lives, and mental attitude of the factory girls and the immigrant men and women. They range from the delightfully humorous to the pathetic and grim and what is so important, they are all true and all set forth with inimitable humor and realism of word and spirit.

Miss Best is without doubt the most brilliant story teller in America today.

With Mr. George Jones accompanied by Mrs. Jones rendering musical selections all that is necessary to complete a joyous social evening, one not soon to be forgotten is to have a capacity room.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Corner of East Laurel and Linden Avenues. Rev. R. Calvin Dobson, D. D., Pastor.

Bible School at 9:30 A. M.; Morning Worship at 11:00 o'clock; Vesper Service at 4:30 P. M. Everybody welcome to all these services.

Next Sunday morning we will observe the Lord's Supper, when new members will be received publicly. In the afternoon will be the regular monthly Vesper Service, which has become so popular in Highland Park. The program is given in another place. The service lasts one hour.

Coming! Wednesday evening, February 7th, eight o'clock, The Tuskegee Singers from the Booker T. Washington School, Tuskegee, Alabama, will give a program of song, consisting of plantation melodies, and religious folk-song, in the chapel of the Church. These singers are of national reputation, and have traveled over the country, singing with great acceptance. No admission will be charged, but the story of Tuskegee Institute and its work will be briefly told, and a collection taken for the benefit of this splendid work among the darkies of the south.

Among the many press reports of their singing, the following is produced:

The names of some of their numbers are no more quaint than their manner of singing them. There is a syncopation in their singing that brings a flood of melody. Each has a clear, melodious voice. The harmony is perfect.

San Diego Union, San Diego, Cal. The public is invited.

On February twelfth a luncheon will be given in the parlors of the Church. Speakers and a musical program will follow luncheon. Every woman interested in the enlargement of Foreign Missions is urged to be present. A fuller notice will appear next week.

SQUARE TALKS

This town doesn't lack good people. It is a good sized town, mostly all in it are good people. It does need, though, good people who go to Church. Why? For their own good of course and for the moral and financial support of an institution that is consecrated to nothing else but good. Just to tackle something worth while, go to Church next Sunday, note the empty seats and then sit down and write even a short article, (anonymous if you please) to this paper, "the reason as you see it why good people don't see the real necessity of going to Church more." This is a sincere request, so please do it. Of course if a great many of you happened to do this same thing on the same Sunday, there wouldn't be any actual necessity for the article (though the Churches weren't crowded the Sunday before) and then if you caught the spirit and went much more often than before, then everything would be alright. Maybe this is the way it will start in Highland Park, who knows? It's a great community, and can be made greater.

"His father's own child". "Her mother's own daughter". Common expressions heard often: "as his father did before him." etc. If you have children, do you want them to go to Church, enter into its work, and live according to its teachings? Some daddies don't go very often, nor do some mothers; this must be true, or those seats wouldn't be vacant. Later on, can they wonder why those kiddies are lax too? If you knew that your boy would go to church and live clean as the church teaches, wouldn't you feel better every day? There's the example, "He's his father's own boy". Besides, isn't it an example to other men, other people, and aren't you securing a double benefit?

Your benefit and responsibility are still there, without having kiddies, for some kiddies watch other people too and are apt to imitate someone they admire. Doesn't some kiddie admire you? Even if you aren't sure of this, it is pretty sure to state that some kiddie would, if you did show him that you believe in God. There are other ways, true enough, but can you think of one so decisive?

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By the Students

Dr. Anderson, who has just completed the physical examinations of the pupils of the Elm Place School, began giving examinations to the high school students this week.

The second semester, which opened Monday, the twenty-ninth, shows an increase of about twenty in the enrollment. The new courses are being offered, one in Economics, and another in Commercial Law which will take the place of the class in Commercial Arithmetic.

The second session of night school will begin on Monday, February fifth, as announced heretofore.

Last Saturday night Deerfield-Shields defeated the LaGrange basketball team with a score of 17-20. On Friday night, at 7:45, we play Proviso and Oak Park. Come out to see the games.

The high school basketball team will play Oak Park High School at the home gym on Friday night. There will be two games, light and heavy weights. The game will be called at 7:30. On Tuesday afternoon at three-thirty there will be light and heavy weight games between Evanston High School, here. Both Friday's and Tuesday's contests are Suburban League games.

EXTRAORDINARY CONTEST

City Hall Bowling Team Wins From Bowman Dairy by Only One Pin

One of the closest and most spectacular bowling games on record was played Saturday afternoon between the City Hall Team and the Bowman Dairy Team, as is revealed by the fact that the City Hall Team won by one pin.

While the City Hall Team are congratulating themselves on being the victors, it is to be regretted that the scorer made two displeasing mistakes. At the close of the struggle, the figures of the last game gave City Hall 820 and Bowman Dairy 811, which made the City Hall Team winners by nine pins. However, the Bowman Dairy aggregation went over the figures and discovered a mistake which brought their score to 821 and claimed to be winners by one pin; thereupon the City Hall Bowlers availed themselves of the same privilege of going over the score and discovered that two pins had been erroneously credited to a dairyman. The error was obvious to all and this made the final outcome of the contest in favor of the City Hall by one pin.

Notwithstanding the turn of events the dairymen were much perturbed and left the scene of encounter with considerable ill feeling.

FORMER RESIDENT, FARMER

Mr. Theodore Stewart for Four Years An Employee of Herman Denzel Makes Successful Trial of Soil

That farming can be successful upon the pine plains which covers so much of Allegan county is proven by the success of Theodore Stewart who now has a fine farm a mile east of Pearl.

Mr. Stewart came to Allegan County from Highland Park, Ill., a few years ago and started without previous experience to convert his farm into profitable agricultural land.

The success of Mr. Stewart is largely due to his persistency in raising cowpeas. Another crop which has been a great builder to his land is soy beans.

Mr. Stewart is by no means the only one who might be singled out who has made crops grow upon this land, but the success of nearly all may be attributed to either the raising of cowpeas or soy beans.

The foregoing clipping was taken from an Allegan (Mich.) county news paper. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will be remembered by people in Highland Park as Mr. Stewart was employed by Herman Denzel for four years, and Mrs. Stewart was cook at the Highland Park Club.

OSSOLI CLUB

An error appeared in last week's issue stating that the next meeting of the club would take place Tuesday afternoon, February third. The next meeting of the club will take place Saturday evening, February third, at eight o'clock at the Highland Park Club house. The subject will be "The Challenge of the American Spirit" given by Dr. Edward A. Steiner.

The study class meets this afternoon at two thirty o'clock. Franklin B. Snyder will speak on "Three English Novelists, Arnold Bennett, Joseph Conrad and John Galsworthy." The third of the series by Mr. Snyder will be "Three American Novelists, Winston Churchill, Margaret Deland, and Edith Wharton, and will be given on the fifteenth. The last of the series is to be given Thursday afternoon, March first on, "The Short Story Today."
