A Tip from One Citizen to Every Citizen

It behooves every Highland Park-er, who possibly can, to avail himself of the opportunity that is his to hear the interpretation that is being given the Ten Commandments in a series of sermons by Mr. Dobson at the Presbyterian church every Sunday morning. To many it will open up a new line of thought, and to those who have been more devout than some of us, the sermons will renew their interest in a great fundamental that may have been lost sight of through familiarity. To hear and to digest these sermons is bound to crystallize your thoughts and conclusions and to broaden your conception of the greatest Law that has ever been given to man. A year ago Mr. Dobson gave a series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer, and I know that everyone that heard them will testify, that not only was their interest in a old friend renewed, but that new meanings has been opened up that the average layman had failed to realize. Many a citizen rests easy Sunday morning, while an argument is raging in him, trying to justify himself for not attending church. Such an argument is entirely out of place. No one wants you to go to church to get a white mark for attendance, but I am sure that anyone who hears one of this series will want to hear the rest. Remember preaching on specific subjects is always more interesting to listen to than a sermon of theory or generalities.

Forewarned is to be forearmed, so now the Sunday morning decision should be: "Do I or do I not want to hear a sane modern interpretation of the Ten Commandments?"
— A Citizen.

SQUARE TALKS

No. 5

"Pay-Up-Day" is a splendid idea, and we hope it proves to be most successful. It does seem strange that one will allow himself to be indebted to another when he can be square. Being fair and square with man simply makes a fellow feel good; there is something about the feeling that is very much "all right." Let's do it all of the time, just you and I. I never had any real sport out of beating anyone out of anything anyhow, did you?

Being square with the other fellow is one thing, and being square with God is more. He gave you your parents, children, home, life and everything else that is worth while. So it is easy to see that we do owe Him something. How about some Pay-up-Days with God? His, is every day, and your is—when you make it. But there is to be a big Pay-up-Day with Him, some day, and it isn't fair (or safe) to take chances on just begging off then, is it? Why not have a Pay-up-Day next Sunday, and go to God's House. There are plenty of them, you are welcome in all of them. You will feel more like a man, and less like a chance-taker. Less like you owed so much that you could never pay. It is a truth that if you and I had these Pay-up-Days with God more often, that less often Pay-up-Weeks with man would be necessary. And so many other things would happen too (all beneficial) that it would take a paper larger than this one, to tell all about it. Pay-up-Day next Sunday.

Some people seem to think that about all the Church work that is necessary is to pay up in money—and God is satisfied—but they really don't. Some others go a little and give a little—very little—and their conscience seems to be contented—but it isn't. Then why don't you tell the above mentioned people, wake them up! There aren't many, it won't take long, and when the givers go more and the others give more and you and I are doing our part, this will be a still more beautiful place to call our home—Contributed.
