Y. W. C. A. NEWS

Miss Priscilla Noranberg has been added to the list of efficient volunteer leaders of the Y. W. C. A. and comes to us with the knowledge and interest that makes success in our work. She will have charge of the Clover Club in our Highwood branch. We are looking for some young woman who will be willing to assist in leading a club of girls of ten years of age for a short period. This is an opportunity for volunteer leadership that will be worth while. If you feel inclined to do anything of this kind call up the Secretary and talk matters over. It will require one afternoon from three to five p. m.

The Saint Patrick's party held last Friday evening by the four senior clubs of the Y. W. C. A. was a very enjoyable affair. The association assembly room was very prettily decorated in shamrocks, harps and green crepe paper streamers, to which were added potted plants. This part of the preparation for the party was undertaken by the Bluebird Club and was very effectively carried out. The Lafollet Club provided a very interesting program, consisting of vocal and instrumental music and readings, after which all present were given an opportunity to relate an Irish story.

The Aster Club served dainty refreshments which were thoroughly enjoyed by all and demonstrated their ability along that line. The latter part of the evening was given over to games, provided and managed by the Friendship club.

The Busy Workers Club under their leaders Mesdames Alexander and Smith held a Recognition meeting Tuesday afternoon, from 4 to 7 p. m. Besides the above service, a program of vocal and instrumental music and reading were given. Refreshments were served and a good time followed. The guests of honor were the Clover Club of the Highwood branch.

ELM PLACE SCHOOL

The progress in raising funds for the new moving picture machine is being made. The prospect of success is so good indeed, that the contract has been made for a Simplex machine, or the latest model. As soon as it arrives work on the fire proof booth will be begun. Among the film subjects it is planned to present in the next few weeks is a series planned by the National Audubon Society, showing wild birds in their homes and their characteristic activities.

Miss Cross of Oak Park has come to substitute in Miss Ames' room until she returns to her position.

The pupils of the school and residents in the neighborhood have been greatly entertained by a flock of about fifty Cedar Wax Wings that have been spending the last few days in the small trees and shrubs in the yard at Mr. Henry C. Mason's residence on Central and Linden Ave. Several of the boys went with their teachers at various times to watch the birds feeding upon the shriveled fruit still clinging to branches of the crab apple trees.

Yesterday practically all of the rooms had bird trips with their teachers, after school hours by way of celebration of the first day of spring.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS

One of the most pleasant and inspiring meetings of the year was held last Wednesday afternoon in the Elm Place auditorium when the Elm Place Parents and Teachers Association met for a fellowship meeting.

Seventy members and guests were present. Mrs. Herbert R. Smith sang a number of selections including, "My Laddie," "The Joy of the Birds" and "An Irish Love Song." Miss Victoria Pownall played a charming selection from Wagner, and the ensemble singing brought to a close a most interesting and helpful meeting.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Continuing the series of sermons on the Ten Commandments, the pastor will preach next Sunday morning on the Seventh Commandment: "Thou shalt not commit adultery," a plea for the Sanctity of Purity.

The Annual Church Dinner of this church has been postponed to April 11th, Wednesday evening, on account of the set time falling in Holy Week. This is one of the most interesting social events in the life of the church, and this change is made with that in mind.

Arrangements are being made for the special Holy Week services which will be held on the evenings of Holy Week, leading up to Easter. These meetings will be addressed by outside speakers, who will assist the pastor during the week.

"Present site most logical."—A. A. Moses.
"I believe a new city hall should be built on the present site, not only from an economic standpoint, but on account of its central location."—Charles F. Grant.

"If there will be any extra money to spend put it all in the new building and build it on the present site which is well located."—Chas. E. Geary.

"I sincerely believe that the building should be built on the present site and all departments of the city and town kept under one roof and one supervision."—J. J. Brand.
"Present location best in town."—Paul Giesler.

"A modern building on the present site is the most practical."—Warren-Meyer Co.
"Don't change location, put the new building on the old site."—Tolbert Dally.

"I believe the present site the most suitable."—James Bowden.
"On account of its good location and the saving it would be to the city and town I should say, keep the present site."—O. B. Brand.

"It is my opinion that the new city and town hall should be built on the present site, inasmuch as it would not mean additional expense."—Jesse Sobey.

"I believe the new city hall should be located at the corner of Central Avenue and Sheridan Road, that is, if we are to have one. I am not altogether in favor of going ahead at this time on account of the unsettled condition of the country."—A. G. McPherson.

"Of hand I should say that the present site is the most advisable."—Earl Purdy.

"I should like to see the new building on the Hammond property just across the street from the present site, but with all the improvements which the city is planning for the future, I do not see that we would be justified in spending the additional money I believe, under the present circumstances that it should be built on the present site."—Earl W. Gsell.

NAVY HEADS COMMENT

with that of the Midshipmen from Annapolis and the Cadets from West Point. The young men were a fine specimen of the class of recruits we receive from the great Middle West, clean cut and robust, and the kind of young men that will keep the Navy up to its present high standard of efficiency.

Please allow me to congratulate you upon the creditable showing made, for it speaks highly of your excellent administration at the Training Station.

With best wishes, believe me, Cordially yours,
(Signed) Josephus Daniels, Commander W. A. Moffett, U. S. N., Commandant, Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Illinois.
