

Our Way of Doing Family Work By the Pound

FAMILIES sending us their entire wash are very much pleased by this way of charging for their work as it enables them to send us everything, including the small pieces, blankets, quilts, rugs, etc. It's a convenient way of having your family work laundered. Try it next week. Don't injure your rugs by having them beaten or scrubbed. Let us dry clean them with Naptha.

It kills all germs and moths and makes your rugs as clean as when new.

Dr. P. A. Dilworth's address before Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania, said: "Optics and Optometry are taught in the great universities of California, Ohio, and Columbia University, New York, not in their medical department but in their departments of physics. I leave it entirely to your judgment whether or not the trustees and faculties and presidents of these institutions would keep students from two to four years under their tutelage, and then graduate them and send them forth to practice Optometry without the use of drugs if drugs were required for the work."

Parent-Teacher Association

The April meeting of the Deerfield P. T. A. was held at the school assembly hall Friday afternoon. The speaker of the afternoon was Miss Edna Baker of the National Kindergarten of Evanston, talked on literature for children and story telling concluding her talk with three excellent stories for children of different ages. A number of children from Miss Glynch's room gave a folk dance. A committee was appointed to arrange for lessons in canning for adults and young ladies. A prize to be offered for the person making the most progress is under consideration.

The association voted to buy the first prize, a hatchet, for the boy scout bird house contest.

The next meeting of the association will be May 11th and all the members are urged to attend as election of officers will take place.

The arrival of spring weather brought other attractions to the front causing a slight decline of interest in the Wednesday evening dancing class, evident by the small attendance of last week, making it necessary for the sponsors to discontinue it for this season.

Notwithstanding the fact that a number in the community did not entirely approve of the dancing class it proved a complete success, both financially and socially. A great deal of credit is given the Parent Teacher Association and the committee. Mrs. Eugene Ender, Miss Sadie Galloway and Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., for their untiring efforts to hold the interest in the class and to make this the most entertaining season for the young people.

Under the splendid direction of Miss Doris Humphrey, many new and graceful dances were introduced.
