

The Important Thing

THE isolated profit on the particular article which you may purchase of us today is not important, even though yours may be a very considerable purchase.

The important thing to us is, that whatever you purchase shall render a full measure of service, up to and even greater than you expect.

From Tires, tubes and accessories down to the smallest article we carry in stock, we want you to feel that this is the spirit that goes with every purchase made here.

And if you are not already numbered among the long list of our satisfied customers, we want you with us.
