"Give Until It Hurts"

It has been suggested that we should "give until it hurts". Some of us have a self satisfied sense after we have made a sacrifice, which, after a little consideration isn't much of a sacrifice at all, and probably wasn't a gift in the true sense of the word. "Give until it hurts" and you will find the real joy of giving.

The Highland Park Public Library sends out an appeal to every thinking person, every one who wants to help. This is how it happens that the library is doing its part. Mr. Charles Reed of Glencoe, who is interesting himself in work in the different training camps, made his appearance at the library this week, and asked that this institution send out an appeal to the public for victrola records, magazines, books, and any other pieces of literature which will be of interest to all young men in the army and navy. Let your reading matter by modern, let it be interesting, entertaining, instructive. Don't send women's magazines to the men in camp. Remember that these boys as many of them are, are just as human as any of us, and that their desires are just like ours; and that they demand, real live, interesting and up to the minute literature.

The library is more than willing to help, and the librarians are anxious to do all they can to help, and ask that the public respond willingly. They want anyone who can bring to the library any of the above mentioned articles and they guarantee that their transportation to the army and navy posts will be properly looked after. It is suggested that each person who has a victrola, and there are many in Highland Park, give at least one record for this use.

The librarians expect every one to do his "bit" and if you have anything to gladden the hearts of these brave boys who are answering the call, give it and "give until it hurts."
