The annual children's carnival which is given under the auspices of the Ravinia Club was held last Thursday afternoon at Ravinia Park. The parade which was led by Mr. Hyatt of New Trier and which was the main feature of the afternoon commenced at two o'clock on the athletic field with nearly a thousand children participating in it. Most of the kiddies came in costume making the affair most attractive. There were Indians, Japanese, Turkish and Spanish as well as Red Cross Nurses, Soldiers and sailors represented. Then too came the old fashioned girl, Little Bo-Peep, fairies and Puritan ladies. Music was furnished by the Glenwood and Allendale Boys' Bands. The drill given by the Glencoe Junior Home Guards was certainly a great credit to the boys and their instructors. All of the North Shore towns were well represented. During the intermission the Misses Hahn and Joan Pierce displayed some very artistic dancing after which the children returned to the athletic field where games were enjoyed. Every Thursday there will be games of various kinds arranged for the children to play during the intermission, on the athletic field.

The student artist day program for tomorrow afternoon at Ravinia Park will include Miss Evelyn Wyne, mezzo-soprano, and Mr. Harold Fuller Ayers, violinist. The following is Miss Wyne's program: "Bird of the Wilderness," "Horsman," "The Blind Girl's Song," "La Gioconda; Songs My Mother Taught Me," Dvorak; "The Open Secret," Woodman. Children's Day is being celebrated today with a piano talk, "Rhinegold" by Mrs. William Spencer Crosby. Operas and concerts for the rest of the week are tonight, Madame Butterfly; Friday, Jewels of the Madonna and Cavalleria Rusticana; Saturday, La Boheme; Sunday, Rigoletto; Monday, Concert of Wagner music with Harry Weisbach and Bruno Steindel as soloists; Tuesday, The Secret of Susanna, and the Doll Scene from The Tales of Hoffman; Wednesday, Manon; Thursday, Martha; Friday, Pagliacci; Saturday, Manon.

The garden golf party given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Carr on their lawn last Saturday was a great success financially as well as socially. The sum of $1,100 was raised for the Great Lakes auxiliary of the Navy relief society which will be used immediately for the needs of the navy. Flags were used as decorations on the lawn. There were three hundred people who attended this affair. Mrs. Ward W. Willis won the lamp, and Miss Marian Moseley won the doll's brass bed.

Mrs. Allan Clement entertained eight guests at luncheon at Exmoor on Tuesday for Mrs. Frank Partridge.

Among the gayest of festivities attending the closing of the first B. O. T. C. at Fort Sheridan is the Officer's ball at Exmoor Country Club, Saturday evening. Everything is going nicely and the committees are very busy with final arrangements. The decorations for the ball are in the hands of a committee consisting of D. F. Kelly, chairman; Richmond Dean and Robert H. Hunter. The Robert F. Carr dancing pavilion will be transformed into a court of honor, with arches of lights and foliage.
