

A Drastic Summer Clearance Sale

Sweeping Price Reductions for a Speedy Disposal of Stocks

Sale Begins
Saturday, Aug. 18

THIS IS OUR Semi-Annual Stock-Reducing Sale—an event with an established record for extreme value-giving. Although prices on all lines of merchandise are steadily advancing, you will find the same great values at this event that have always characterized our Clearance Sales. In some lines you will find the values even greater, for this has been a decidedly backward season, and stocks are abnormally large. Space is needed for incoming fall merchandise, so that an immediate and absolute disposal is imperative.
