OUR ARMY of Telephone Workers

AN ARMY of workers is required to furnish the United States with the telephone service so essential in its commercial life and in the National Defense.

It is a Picked Army. From the highest in command to the lowest in rank each employee is selected with the purpose of bringing into the telephone business only those who are capable of doing the best work in the service of the public.

It is a Trained Army. Each employee is fitted for his or her task in our telephone schools, where the proper foundation is laid for future efficiency and where the true spirit of service is taught.

It is a Skilled Army. The high order of workmanship displayed in the building of lines, in the installation of switchboards and telephones and in the systematic handling of calls is evidence of this practical training.

It is a Loyal Army. Day or night, in sunshine or blizzard, in fire or in flood, the call of the service is ever uppermost in the minds of the Bell Army. It never fails to respond in any emergency calling for prompt and effective work.

Your Bell Army is in fighting trim now, alert, watchful, dependable, prepared to furnish the best possible service under all conditions.

Co-operation with the operator and care of your telephone equipment will help us to furnish you the high quality of service so essential at the present time.
