The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

An army relief hop will be held at Fort Sheridan gymnasium, October fifth. The affair is to be given for the student officers. Special trains will come from Chicago and north shore towns, and probably private parties from different states, represented by the men in training.

Yesterday an all day event for ladies took place at Exmoor. They called it the "annual white elephant day." Golf was played in the morning and luncheon was served at one o'clock. Following luncheon these officers were elected to care for Ladies Golf events for the coming year. Mrs. W. V. B. Aimes, chairman, Mrs. Arthur Jerrems, vice chairman and Mrs. J. B. Burage, handicap.

Miss Anna Muench was hostess on Tuesday evening to the Worth White Circle.

The Ossoli Club will begin its usual busy winter season on Saturday evening next week. October 6th will be the date of the benefit dance which the club is giving under the auspices of the Philanthropic Department. There will be bridge for those who don't dance, and an opportunity to dance for those who don't play cards. There is of course nothing to prevent one from doing both. A lively orchestra will furnish the music. Prizes for cards and light refreshments will be included in the evening's program. It is hoped that many will come to help make this affair a success, and help the club realize its many philanthropic ideas. The plan for the work this year is to include as much charity work as possible. The club hopes to create a fund from which to draw what moneys are needed to carry on relief work during the winter. Those who are in charge are Mrs. Rolland Hastings, chairman, her committee is composed of Mrs. Ralph Bard, Mrs. Gerard Van Schaeck, Mrs. Henry Glidden, Mrs. Roger Vall. This committee will be assisted by the following, Mrs. Jas. Martin Miss Follansbee, Mrs. George Hart, Miss Insull, Mrs. Parker Johnston, Mrs. Carleton Vall, Mrs. F. M. Lowe, Mrs. F. K. McKenzie, Mrs. W. D. Putnam Mrs. Geo. Roberts Mrs. Mavor, Mrs. W. L. The next meeting of the Garden Club of Highland Park will take place at ten o'clock next Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. McGregor Adams. Two very good papers are promised on "Garden Experience," by Mrs. Rex Jones and Mrs. M. E. Sampaell. The election of officers will take place at this meeting. This is the last meeting of the year. The club will adjourn until February next. tain Just Us Girls club at her home tomorrow evening.

The Educational Committee of the Woman's Civic Club of Ravinia gave a very delightful reception to the Ravinia teachers on Friday afternoon, at the Village House. The Village House was beautiful on this occasion, flowers and the afternoon sun giving the room an air of hospitality. Mr. Laurence Buck's gift, a mural painting, representing a portion of the out doors about Ravinia was much admired by the guests.

A harvest festival and sale was held in the Village House in Ravinia on Saturday afternoon. Garden things were sold, and in addition many home baked articles were sold. The affair was to benefit the Village House and to help pay for some very attractive decoration which is being done there.

Mrs. E. T. Skidmore will entertain the Martha Society of the Highland Park Swedish Lutheran church tomorrow afternoon. Little Marjorie Wightman entertained twelve of her little friends at a party on Monday afternoon honoring her fourth birthday.
