The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Mrs. Fred Tucker is hostess this afternoon to the Euchre Club.

Miss Florence Warner is entertaining nine of the girls of the Sunday School class at their regular meeting this evening.

The military ball to be held in the post gymnasium, Fort Sheridan, on Friday evening next, promises to be the most brilliant of social affairs of the season. Not a thing which would add to the beauty and pleasure of the ball is to be omitted every detail of decoration and comfort is to have personal supervision. Mrs. Tate, whose husband, Col. Tate is on the border, is working hard on the plans of the ball and is ably assisted by many other enthusiastic workers. Decorations will be in the able hands of Alphonse Campion of Marshall Field's and the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, will have charge of the wiring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McKenzie announce the marriage of their daughter, Charity Eleanor to Mr. Ralph Raymond Moore of Evanston on Friday, September twenty-eighth.

Miss Laura Fischer entertained forty friends on Monday evening for Mr. Frank Meade who left yesterday for Rockford where he will go into training.

The first of a series of Suburban Special dances will be given at Ravinia Park Saturday evening, October thirteenth.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Lincoln School will hold its first meeting of the season at the Lincoln School tomorrow afternoon at three thirty o'clock. This meeting will be mainly a social affair, giving the mothers an opportunity to meet the teachers. Every mother is cordially invited to be present. After this the meetings will be held the first Wednesday afternoon in each month.
