THE LIBERTY LOAN

By W. G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury

For the purpose of equipping with arms, clothing and food our gallant soldiers who have been called to the field;

For the purpose of maintaining our Navy and our valiant tars upon the high seas;

For the purpose of providing the necessary means to pay the wages of our soldiers and sailors, and, if the bill now pending in Congress passes, the monthly allowances for the support of their dependent families and to supply them with life insurance;

For the purpose of constructing a great fleet of merchant vessels to maintain the line of communication with our brave troops in France, and to keep our commerce afloat upon the high seas in defiance of the German Kaiser and his submarines;
