Several more have signed the muster roll since the above roster was compiled.

The official uniform is as follows:

Officers' uniform coats are to have large bellows pockets, the body longer than the regular army coat, and with rolling collar having a vent or opening in the back of coat.

Breeches, ponchos, raincoats, cap, hat, shoes, puttees, to be regulation army officers' style.

Officers will wear braid on their coat sleeves, as worn by regular army officers.

Officers' hat cords to be regular army style, gold tassel and black, excepting the slide and acorn, which will be black. A black four-in-hand tie may also be worn. Blue and white hat cord for privates and non-commissioned officers.

Belts to be in tan, two inches wide; double-prong buckle, in bronze.

Buttons on uniforms to be State Militia Regulation 4-button blouse.

The rank of non-commissioned officer will be indicated by chevrons worn on both sleeves of the coat on the upper arm, midway between the elbow and the shoulder.

Chevrons will be made of O. D. cloth, army regulation styles; they will be sewn on the sleeves, the stripes in an inverted V shape, the space of one-eighth of an inch between each, indicating the rank as follows:

Corporal—two stripes;
Sergeant—three stripes;
Sergeant's belt for side-arms same as regular army;
Spread eagle insignia to be worn on officers' caps.

State Council of Defense shield to be worn by each member on the left breast pocket flap.

Insignia of officers to be as that of the regular army:

First Lieutenant—one bar;
Captain—two bars;
Major—gold leaf;
Lieutenant Colonel—silver leaf;
Colonel—eagle.

V. T. C. insignia will be worn by officers on the right side of coat collar and crossed rifles on the left side.

Our idea of the place to organize a German republic is Berlin, not New York.

In time like these any man who really wishes to serve his state or country can find the opportunity.
