PROTECT YOUR OWN HOUSEHOLD
It is a wise thing to prevent rather than take a risk to extinguish a fire which is likely to occur on your premises by reason of defective stoves, stoves and furnaces which have been in use but little during the summer.
The Fire Marshal advises property owners to have their heating apparatus and flues put in good safe condition before using. Your own interest and that of your neighbor demands careful attention to this particular matter now.
If you want to do your bit in accord with the spirit of the times the way to help is at hand. You can render public service and also protect your own household.

"OH BOY" OPENS EIGHTH WEEK IN CHICAGO
The special Chicago company selected with greatest care by Messrs. Comstock and Elliott is headed by Joseph Stanley, Ivy Sawyer, Laurence Wheat, Dorothy Maynard, James Bradbury, Hugh Cameron, Leonore Chippendale, Lillian Beennard, Henry Dornton and forty others. There are two scores of the prettiest girls ever seen on a stage and a complement of singers, dancers and comedians never before assembled in one production.
The book and lyrics of "Oh Boy" are the work of Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse, authors responsible for a dozen New York successes, and the musical score is by Jerome Kern, composer of at least one hundred musical comedy successes. Taken altogether "Oh Boy" lives up to its title in every way and should not be missed by lovers of good entertainment.

The time between now and November 2nd is short, and for that reason the workers on the Trinity Bazar are putting forth every effort to make this bazar as successful an affair as possible. On Monday Mrs. Bradshaw Egan was hostess to 25 workers and a most enthusiastic gathering it was. Heads of committees reported that all work was going very nicely and that each worker was doing his share.
The plan is now to hold all day meetings at the Trinity Parish House every Monday on which the Guild does not meet, until the date of the bazar.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS
Miss Harriet Vittum will speak at the Elm Place Auditorium Saturday evening, October 13, at 8 p. m. under the auspices of the Patriotic League. This is a rare opportunity for the people of Highland Park to hear this talented woman and none should miss hearing her at this time, as she discusses the pertinent questions of the day. For her subject for the evening she has chosen one that appeals to every man, woman and child along the North Shore, "The Girl in Her Relation to the War."
Just at this time we are vitally interested in all that pertains to this great war movement. The attitude of women generally and of our girls in particular means a great deal to the locality as a whole. The Patriotic League with its triple pledge of Patriotism, Personality and Patriotism is aiming to keep the standard of womanhood high, clean and pure.
An urgent invitation is extended to all. Men are especially invited.

DO you fully realize that these boys not hesitatingly, but with a smile and a jest are going into a hell to fight for you? If you cannot find words to express the greatness of your obligation you can do something.
You can
Buy a Liberty Bond
In that action you lend the money to your Government to be expended by it in equipping those boys, in sustaining them until they bring home victory.
Will you do it?
Your bank can give you the particulars of payment.
