HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Our eleven husky "gridders" furnished a big crowd of thrills last Saturday when we engaged New Trier in football combat. Both camps displayed considerable ability, Holmes starting for Deerfield and Searles for New Trier. A hard fought contest resulted in a 13-4 count for New Trier. Tomorrow we play Proviso on our grounds.

The basket ball schedule is almost played. Perts' heavies licked Schneider's heavies 8 to 2; McNutt's lights beat Cooney's lights 6 to 2; Schneider's Bantams cleaned Perts' bantams 17 to 4; Perrine's mixed walloped Taylor's mixed 18 to 10; and Schneider's lights beat Perts' 6 to 9. It yet remains for Newhall's wonders to get beat by Perrine's to almost complete the important games of the schedule.

The Juniors and Seniors fought to a 1 to 1 draw Monday night at soccer. The draw will be played off next Monday.

On Wednesday, November 7th, a general assembly was held at which time the chorus entertained us with a few selections. Ruth Gloss read President Wilson's letter to high school students of the United States. Mrs. Hull, who is at the head of the Junior Auxiliary, spoke to us on the work of the Red Cross. After the boys were dismissed, the girls formed a Junior Auxiliary and nominated candidates for the various offices; the election resulted as follows: President—Ruth Gloss. Vice Pres.—Editha Parry. Secretary—Bernice Rundquist. Treasurer—Helen Driscoll.

The society held its first meeting on Monday and formed several classes for knitting and sewing. The first meeting of the Le Cercle Francaise was held on Friday, Nov. 9, and the officers chosen for the following year were: President—Hamilton Quayle. Vice Pres.—Elizabeth Larson. Secretary—Helen Driscoll. Treasurer—Mildred Goelitz.

Miss Griswold gave a most interesting talk on Paris and Versailles, illustrated by stereopticon views.

At 7:30 p. m. there will be an anniversary service commemorating the conversion of Mr. John Christman, which occurred one year ago.
