OH BOY, SMARTEST OF MUSICAL COMEDIES

Most Attractive Show Continues to Draw Crowds at LaSalle Theatre, Chicago

"Oh Boy" the fourth and smartest of the Princess Theatre, New York, musical comedy successes has proved an absolute knockout at the La Salle Theatre where it started its fourth month last week. Its charming refinement, wholesome fun, catchy, hitting music, pretty girls and clever dancers and comedians have made it the theatrical sensation and event of years in Chicago.

"Oh Boy" can well boast of the best cast ever assembled in one production. It has as its star no less a light than Joseph Santley, supported by Ivy Sawyer, Dorothy Maynard, Laurence Wheat, James Bradbury, Hugh Cameron, Henry Dorn-ton, Josephine Hartman and fifty others.

Messrs Comstock and Elliott are to be congratulated for sending such a splendid company and play to the middle west. There are five "Oh Boy" companies playing in the United States. The New York company is in its second year at the Princess Theatre. The Boston company has been playing at the Plymouth Theatre for five months.
