Interesting Letters from Our Boys in Service

William O. Morgan's Letter
"Somewhere in France"
Finished Oct. 14, 1917.

I have just come back from about two hours of listening to the English songs in the anteroom of the mess room where there is a piano. They have all our ragtime and many of their own troop songs besides, especially "Take me back to Bill-ly-ly, Take me back to Blighty (England), etc."

Tonight we had a concert given by a dozen men dropped back for a night from the front who are in the medical corps, and it was mighty good; songs I haven't heard, which have come out in England and much English humor which was really wonderfully clever, but an Englishman is the only one who could get away with it.

If you could see entire France and most of England wearing mourning—men, women and children, you would be proud yourselves to wear it for us, knowing that death means nothing to us out here. It seems impossible to you, I know, to think of us not fearing to be killed—as a matter of fact we all do, yet it is exactly like a football game for one who fears he will be injured—in the midst of it all you do not reckon the consequences, in fact home and America seem so far off that it is rather as a dream that you consider the life which heretofore has meant so much to you—and it is selfish, I know but we have to gradually drift from one thing to another until at last we are in the front line and then going over the top to bayonet the Boches. War seems so much more dreadful to you than it does to us, for we know what to expect and seeing your best friends killed somehow seems to make you think less rather than more of the life which is to be given up—so don't think of us as a brave, self-sacrificing bunch of men—for bravery out here is second nature and few men can fall.

You should see it rain here, talk about sunny France—you see two inches of blue sky, then buckets of rain come down, except yesterday it has rained practically steadily for 8 days and nights. For heavens sake don't let anyone else come over here with shoes such as I had—mud is everywhere and they are useless after ten steps. My heavy boots are fine and I am about to buy some English army shoes which have soles, etc., over an inch thick, heavy coarse black ones.

You can get anything out here and the nearer the front you get the more there is to be had. It is the people in England and way back of the lines who are howling about no sugar and meatless days. They ought to be ashamed of themselves and darn glad that the men who are fighting for them are getting it all, at least all that is necessary for a soldier in the way of clothing, etc. The food, of course, is fine. It has to be or they wouldn't be fit and for heavens sake tell everybody not to put a cent into tobacco for the soldiers—there is a tremendous quantity of English cigarettes everywhere you go and they are cheaper than ours. Of course they are the light Virginia tobacco which you have to get used to but if you are going to give any money to do anything put it into the Y. M. C. A., relief work, etc. The man who is out here is mighty well taken care of, it is the thousands of peasants who are working their heads off to keep from starving. If you could see these old French women and girls and old men working and carrying loads I should hate to lift—you would know what it is to be really penniless and wonder if you can grow enough to live thru the winter. Of course there is no coal and you can imagine how scarce wood is for these natives in a country as old as this.

The Y. M. C. A. is doing a great work over here. Every camp has its building, with reading and writing rooms and generally a piano. If you could have seen a couple of hundred Tommies at a rest camp singing away while waiting for the train to take them a short couple of hours to the front line (a camp we spent the day at on the way here) you would realize what pleasure and how much these buildings mean to them.

I am learning an endless lot about everything and spending every spare moment making notes on the English war pamphlets and on our lectures. We certainly are getting the real stuff, but it leaves little time for writing. I am getting far healthier and am far safer than you people amongst the traffic of big cities. All you people see is the terrible side of this war. The fact is it is terrible, but out here no one says so though they know it full well and so we go merrily into it, enjoying it immensely. You don't have to get killed you know, not so many do, the

Choose An Oil Heater Wisely

Let us help you—for oil heaters are different—some are better than others. The one sure best for 20 years—the one that produces the most heat for the least cost, is the one with this trade-mark. Beats a coal room in a "jiffy"—no the radiant heat. The heat is clean and odorless. Costs only one cent an hour, so use—

Barler

Depend on that name for lasting satisfaction. You can't get genuine BARLER Oil Heaters in this town. Best chance you get, and examine one critically. You will not be urged to buy—it must sell itself. But come in soon.

An Open Letter to the People of Highland Park

Only a small amount of property lying east of the railroad is now available for homes or investment in Highland Park.

We have just finished grading streets and putting in cinder walks, sewer, water and asphalt tank at our new subdivision lying on Waukegan Ave., at the corner of Orchard Lane and lying one block south of Moraine Road Station on the North Shore Electric line, and are now prepared to place our property on the market at such attractive prices that we expect to be sold out within a couple of weeks. This is one of the most beautiful spots in Highland Park. There are beautiful large shade trees on every lot and a number of lots run back to picturesque ravines that lend themselves to fine landscape gardening effects.

We have three five room modern houses nearing completion which will sell on easy payments if desired. There are only fourteen vacant lots and three houses for sale and the people buying them will be lucky indeed and will make big returns on their investment.

Prices have doubled and trebled on the lots we sold when we opened the Esmoor Addition and they will do the same here and it is the wise ones who will buy these lots and make big returns on their money.

Prices range from $450 to $1200 for vacant 50 foot lots and houses $2500 to $3275.

If you buy a lot we will loan you money to build and we will take liberty bonds the same as cash.

You will find our Agent on the premises every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoon between three and five o'clock who will be pleased to show you the property.

Take advantage of this opportunity to own your own home and see us at once.

Write us a letter and our agent will call on you.

"INTOLERANCE TO BE SHOWN HERE SATURDAY"

to show by means of this picture that intolerance is one of the weak spots of civilization. I have taken this theme and shown it throughout the development and growth of humanity, using the four great periods in the world's history, the wonders of the Nazarene in Palestine, the wicked rule of Catherine de Medici in France and the everyday problems of our modern life. Each story is entirely different but all are correlated because the dominating theme of each is the same.

I have endeavored to make the incidents which I have shown on the screen of such a nature that the audience on viewing the picture conceives and elaborates the story in its
